

Nixon's Voting Rights Plan Sparks GOP Liberal Revolt

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hugh Scott, the assistant GOP leader in the Senate, has suggested a possible revolt of Republican liberals in declaring his split from party ranks on President Nixon's voting rights proposal.

The Pennsylvania Republican, at a news conference, was asked how long before GOP liberals would rebel in view of the voting bill and the softening of school desegregation guidelines reportedly being considered by the administration.

"Not very much," Scott said. "I'm simply serving notice. Period."

After Scott talked to newsmen Friday, Republican Senate leader Sen. Everett M. Dirksen said he would introduce the Nixon bill. Dirksen was instrumental in stopping the nomination of Dr. John F. Kennedy for chief of national health affairs, a development which also ranks liberals.

Sen. Charles C. Mc Mathias Jr. of Maryland, another of the dozen Republican liberals in the Senate, was asked about Scott's remarks on rebellion and he said, more strongly: "It's already begun."

Scott said instead of the Nixon measure he preferred to push for a five-year extension of the 1965 Voting Rights Act. Negro leaders as well as several key congressional liberals of both parties also advocate extension.

The administration bill would have a nationwide application and substitute for the 1965 act which applies to only seven states of the deep south.

The Nixon proposal would disrupt and dilute the pattern of federal enforcement, Scott said. If extension is won, he said, he would support the Nixon bill as a separate piece of legislation.

Scott said his break was difficult and somewhat embarrassing.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin, Jr., D-N.C., chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee's constitutional rights subcommittee, said the administration proposal is "at least free from the hypocrisy of the 1965 Act in that it applies to the whole country instead of just seven southern states."

In a separate interview, Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., said the bill at least "avoids the unspeakable hypocrisy of pretending that denial of voting rights and vote frauds are unknown in other parts of the country."

Both Russell and Ervin made clear, however, that they oppose federal interference with the right of states to determine the qualifications of voters.

Dirksen indicated he would introduce the administration bill the first of next week.

President Studies Choice For Post As Health Chief

NEW YORK (AP) — President Nixon today weighed a choice among several compromise candidates for a new assistant secretary for health and scientific affairs, following the rejection of Dr. John H. Knowles for the post.

In Washington, it was reported that Dr. Roger Egeberg of the University of Southern California was a leading contender. The 65-year-old dean of the USC school of medicine flew to the nation's capital late Friday and met with Secretary of Welfare Robert H. Finch.

Also reported under consideration were Dr. John R. Hoge, dean of the board of health sciences at the University of Washington in Seattle; Dr. Richard Wilbur, a California physician in private practice; and Dr. Thomas C. Point, of the University of Oklahoma Medical School.

Some information on the choice may be made at a mid-morning news briefing by presidential press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler. Nixon also may make known then plans to go to the Pacific for the July 24 splashdown of the Apollo 11 moon capsule and perhaps to follow this with a tour of allied capitals in the Far East.

Nixon came to New York Friday after ceremonies at Massena, N.Y., and Montreal, Canada, marking the 10th anniversary of the St. Lawrence Seaway. Finch Friday abandoned a five-month fight for the appointment of Dr. Knowles as his chief lieutenant for health affairs. Knowles, 45, is director of Massachusetts General Hospital.

The secretary one of Nixon's closest advisers, bowed to opposition by the ruling elements of organized medicine, backed by Senate Majority Leader Everett M. Dirksen. Knowles has been a long-time backer of Medicare and other causes unpopular to some of his medical colleagues.

Knowles blamed elements of the American Medical Association for forcing his rejection.

Aboard the presidential plane at one point Friday, Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., senior Republican member of the Senate labor education committee, said of the substitute for Knowles:

"They're going to pick a good man who'll be hard to knock down. It would be wrong for us to take it out on him."

"But I think we ought to look into what's going on with the AMA. I think if they had any influence in this thing it's real throwback. The AMA did itself a tremendous disservice because now people may want the government to have a big role in health. Its dug-in opposition over the years hastened rather than retarded Medicare."

Initial Production To Start By Late 1970, RCA Says

RCA's new $19 million glass manufacturing plant will be located on a 162-acre site south of Circleville between the city limits and Logan Elm Village.

Plans for the county's newest industry were announced Friday by G. C. Brewster of RCA Television Picture Tube Division at a press conference at the L-K Restaurant.

The plant will produce glass enclosures for color television tubes. The new glass plant will make RCA the industry's most fully-integrated color television manufacturer, from components parts to completed receivers, according to John B. Farese, executive vice president, RCA Electronic Components.

Farese said that glass components produced at the Circleville plant will be used only in RCA's own production of color television picture tubes. However, he said RCA plans to continue to buy the major portion of its glass requirements for TV picture tubes from outside sources.

CONSTRUCTION of the plant is scheduled to start this summer with limited production to start late in 1970 and increased availability of product scheduled in 1971.

The 325,000 square-foot plant will be specially-designed for the latest glass manufacturing techniques. It will operate on a three shift, 24-hour per day basis.

Although RCA officials declined to comment on the number of persons that will be employed at the new plant, unofficial estimates of an initial payroll of 600 and as many as 1,200 employees eventually have been made.

By the end of 1970, employment will be rapidly accelerated and it is expected that eventual employment will add measurably to the economy of the state. At the new Circleville plant, RCA will require engineers and technicians, skilled and semi-skilled tradesmen, production employees as well as management, administrative, supervisory and clerical employees. The majority of the work force will be recruited from the local area.

Brewster announced the appointment of J. G. Vandermark Jr. as personnel manager. His temporary office will be located at the plant site on Route 23.

Brewster explained that the new facility will be operated by the RCA Television Picture Tube Division.

AT present time, RCA produces color picture tubes in the United States at plants in Lancaster and Scranton, Pa., and Marion, Ind. The combined employment of these plants is more than 8,100 persons. South Viets Sweep Near Ben Het

SAIGON (AP) — Fresh South Vietnamese troops, 1,500 of them, launched new sweeps around the besieged Ben Het Special Forces camp today. Military spokesmen said they were trying to ease the pressure on the camp.

Meanwhile the Viet Cong said in a new radio broadcast that Ben Het was "doomed" and that its "fall will have an unusually important significance."

"Destroying Ben Het," the broadcast said, "will be a deadly blow and a humiliating failure for the United States in its plot to de-Americanize the war and use Vietnamese to kill Vietnamese in support of U.S. neo-colonialist aggression in Vietnam."

While there were no reports of large-scale fighting during the past 24 hours, the enemy sharply stepped up rocket and mortar attacks, firing 236 rounds into the camp Friday.

It was the heaviest barrage over a 24-hour period since the camp came under attack last May 1. The only casualties reported were five American artillerymen wounded.

The United States, which is contributing only air, artillery and advisory support to the campaign, retaliated by doubling its air strikes.

Air Force fighter-bombers, diving through holes in the clouds hammered away at enemy bunkers and gun positions ringing the base.

Six to eight miles southwest of the camp, 30 Strategic Air Command B52 bombers dropped 900 tons of explosives aimed at cutting off enemy reinforcements from Laos.

Cooler Air Brings Rain, Twisters

Cooler air creeping over the midcontinent today triggered renewed outbreaks of thunderstorms, though on a generally reduced scale from violent storms which marked much of this first week of summer.

Tornadoes touched down briefly Friday night near Potosi and Union, Mo., southwest of St. Louis. There were no reports of damage or injuries.

Nearly 3 inches of rain drenched the northwestern Oklahoma community of Seiling during a severe thunderstorm Friday night. Hailstones the size of golfballs also thrashed the area. Similarly large hail hit a section of Kansas 55 miles southwest of Wichita.

The cooling trend penetrated the eastern Great Lakes region during the night and sparked thunderstorms from southeastern Michigan and northern Ohio to southwestern New York.

Winds of 52 miles an hour, and heavy rain, lashed the Buffalo, N.Y., area.

Report Finch Will Resign

DETROIT (AP) — Robert Finch will resign as U.S. secretary of health, education and welfare within a month, the Detroit Free Press reported in a dispatch from Washington today.

Citing "top Republican congressional sources," the newspaper article by William Vance, said Finch, angry and bitterly disappointed over President Nixon's refusal to appoint Dr. John H. Knowles as the nation's top health officer, will return to California and re-enter politics.

Finch had been California's lieutenant governor until he resigned to accept the Cabinet post in the Nixon administration. The Free Press said he is reportedly considering running for the U.S. Senate seat currently held by Republican George Murphy.

Finch denied Thursday a report he had threatened to quit if Knowles were not nominated. The report had appeared in the Los Angeles Times.

But the "congressional sources" said their information on Finch's coming resignation came directly from the White House, the Free Press said.

Appeals Court Next To Hear Evans Motions

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Attorneys Stanley E. Tolliver and Charles W. Fleming said Friday they would take the case of Fred "Ahmed" Evans to the Cuyahoga County Court of Appeals next week.

Their decision was made after Common Pleas Judge George J. McMonagle Friday overruled two motions for a new trial.

A jury convicted Evans 38 on May 12 of seven counts of first-degree murder in the slaying of three policemen and a civilian last July 23 in Cleveland's Glenville area.

Evans, a Black Nationalist leader, was charged with directing a conspiracy that led to the shootings. McMonagle sentenced Evans to die.

Indiana State Police Patrol Troubled Area

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Violence flared for a second straight night Friday in a predominantly Negro neighborhood in Kokomo, Ind., where an earlier cross burning resulted in the arrest of 11 white persons.

In Omaha, Neb., incidents of violence subsided after three nights of racial turmoil, bringing an outward calm to much of the Negro community.

A curfew remained in effect Friday in Cairo, Ill., where racial problems flared anew Thursday but no new incidents or arrests were reported.

Kokomo Mayor John Miller ordered a 10:30 p.m.-to-dawn curfew and about 200 state police riot troopers aided city police in patrolling the area.

Lt. Dave Levendowski, state police information officer, said several patrol cars were hit by sniper fire but no injuries were reported.

Police said 14 persons were arrested including four white men they said were found armed, sitting on a rooftop just outside the trouble area. The four were charged with riotous conspiracy and carrying guns without a permit. Charges against the others ranged from curfew violation to rioting.

Fire Chief Robert Barton said four businesses and a five-room residence were damaged by suspicious fires early today.

The disorders stem from the cross burning Thursday morning in the heart of the Negro community. Thursday night Negro youths smashed watermelons at the site of the burning but there were no arrests.

In Omaha police chased reports of gunfire until early today but there was no further looting and burning of the sort that caused nearly $1 million damage in the past three days.

The unrest followed the fatal shooting of 14-year-old Vivian Strong, a Negro, by white patrolman James Loder who subsequently pleaded innocent to a manslaughter charge.

The reduced friction Friday followed by hours the plea of James Strong, 41, the girl's father, who said, "I wish people would please just stop it. All this trouble doesn't help at all."

Anti-Pollution Work Slow

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — While federal officials Friday reported "substantial compliance" with measures to clean up Lake Erie, other observers at a five-state meeting here admitted being baffled.

H. W. Poston, regional director of the Federal Water Pollution Control Administration, said:

"We came here to find out what progress has been made as compared to dates set in 1967. Now we come up with reports of dates extended, new plans and advanced waste treatment research—these all diversionary tactics?"

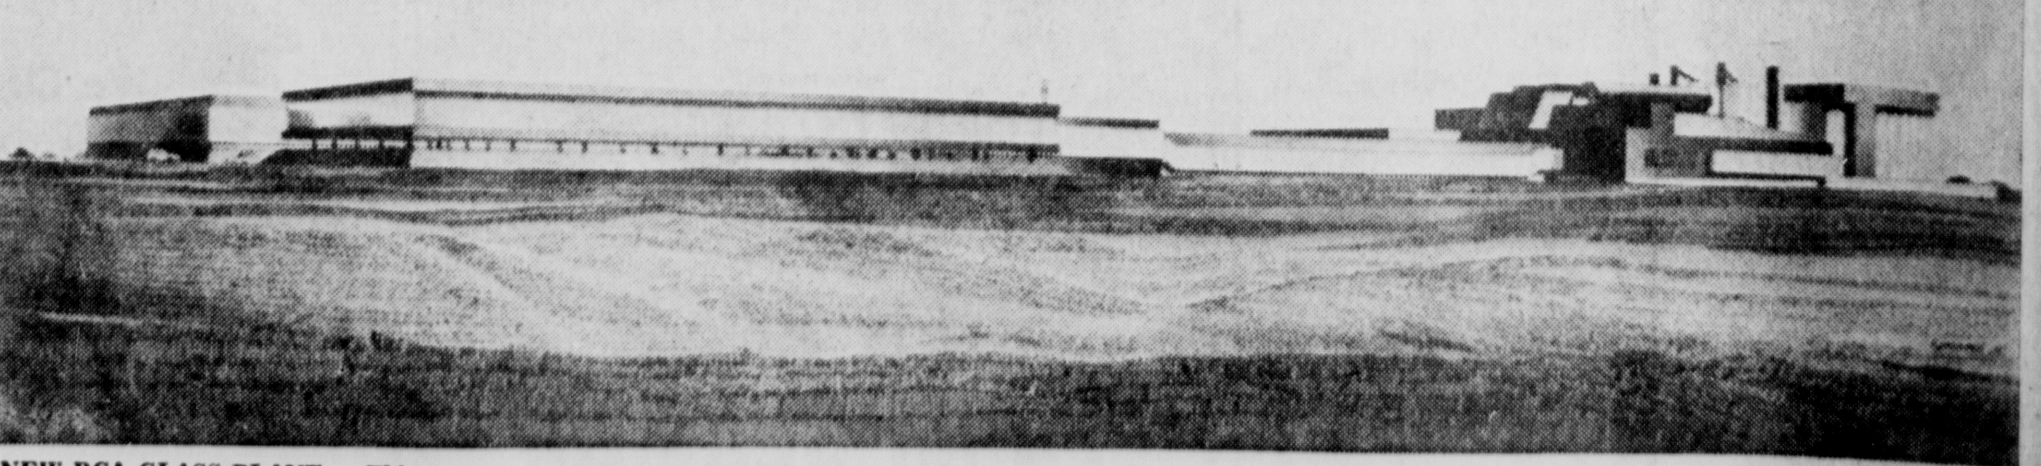

James O'Keefe, a representative of the United Auto Workers, said he was confused after reading the "reams of verbiage" put out in the reports for consumption by delegates from Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Pennsylvania, and New York.

One check indicated that about 50 per cent of the cities and 75 per cent of industries are behind schedule in antipollution programs.

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The plus 90 degree heat in Northern Ohio Friday led to one man jogging in the nude and three men jumping fully clothed into the downtown Cleveland Mall fountain to cool off.

The three men who went swimming in the Mall were charged with disorderly conduct and released on personal bond, but the man jogging in the nude — along I-71 no less — was booked on intoxication.

Details on the new plant were made public Friday during a press conference at the L-K Restaurant.

Police said 14 persons were arrested including four white men they said were found armed, sitting on a rooftop just outside the trouble area. The four were charged with riotous conspiracy and carrying guns without a permit. Charges against the others ranged from curfew violation to rioting.

Fire Chief Robert Barton said four businesses and a five-room residence were damaged by suspicious fires early today.

The disorders stem from the cross burning Thursday morning in the heart of the Negro community. Thursday night Negro youths smashed watermelons at the site of the burning but there were no arrests.

In Omaha police chased reports of gunfire until early today but there was no further looting and burning of the sort that caused nearly $1 million damage in the past three days.

The unrest followed the fatal shooting of 14-year-old Vivian Strong, a Negro, by white patrolman James Loder who subsequently pleaded innocent to a manslaughter charge.

The reduced friction Friday followed by hours the plea of James Strong, 41, the girl's father, who said, "I wish people would please just stop it. All this trouble doesn't help at all."

South Viets Sweep Near Ben Het

SAIGON (AP) — Fresh South Vietnamese troops, 1,500 of them, launched new sweeps around the besieged Ben Het Special Forces camp today. Military spokesmen said they were trying to ease the pressure on the camp.

Meanwhile the Viet Cong said in a new radio broadcast that Ben Het was "doomed" and that its "fall will have an unusually important significance."

"Destroying Ben Het," the broadcast said, "will be a deadly blow and a humiliating failure for the United States in its plot to de-Americanize the war and use Vietnamese to kill Vietnamese in support of U.S. neo-colonialist aggression in Vietnam."

While there were no reports of large-scale fighting during the past 24 hours, the enemy sharply stepped up rocket and mortar attacks, firing 236 rounds into the camp Friday.

It was the heaviest barrage over a 24-hour period since the camp came under attack last May 1. The only casualties reported were five American artillerymen wounded.

The United States, which is contributing only air, artillery and advisory support to the campaign, retaliated by doubling its air strikes.

Air Force fighter-bombers, diving through holes in the clouds hammered away at enemy bunkers and gun positions ringing the base.

Six to eight miles southwest of the camp, 30 Strategic Air Command B52 bombers dropped 900 tons of explosives aimed at cutting off enemy reinforcements from Laos.

The 1,500 fresh South Vietnamese troops flown into the area late Friday and today are the cooling trend penetrated the eastern Great Lakes region during the night and sparked thunderstorms from southeastern Michigan and northern Ohio to southwestern New York.

Winds of 52 miles an hour and heavy rain, lashed the Buffalo, N.Y., area.

Thundershowers dampened the Pacific Northwest where temperatures in the 50s and occasional 40s were common. Snow flecked upper elevations of the northern Rockies.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 40 at Baker, Ore., to 90 at Needles, Calif.

CONSTRUCTION of the plant is scheduled to start this summer with limited production to start late in 1970 and increased availability of product scheduled in 1971.

The 325,000 square-foot plant will be specially-designed for the latest glass manufacturing techniques. It will operate on a three shift, 24-hour per day basis.

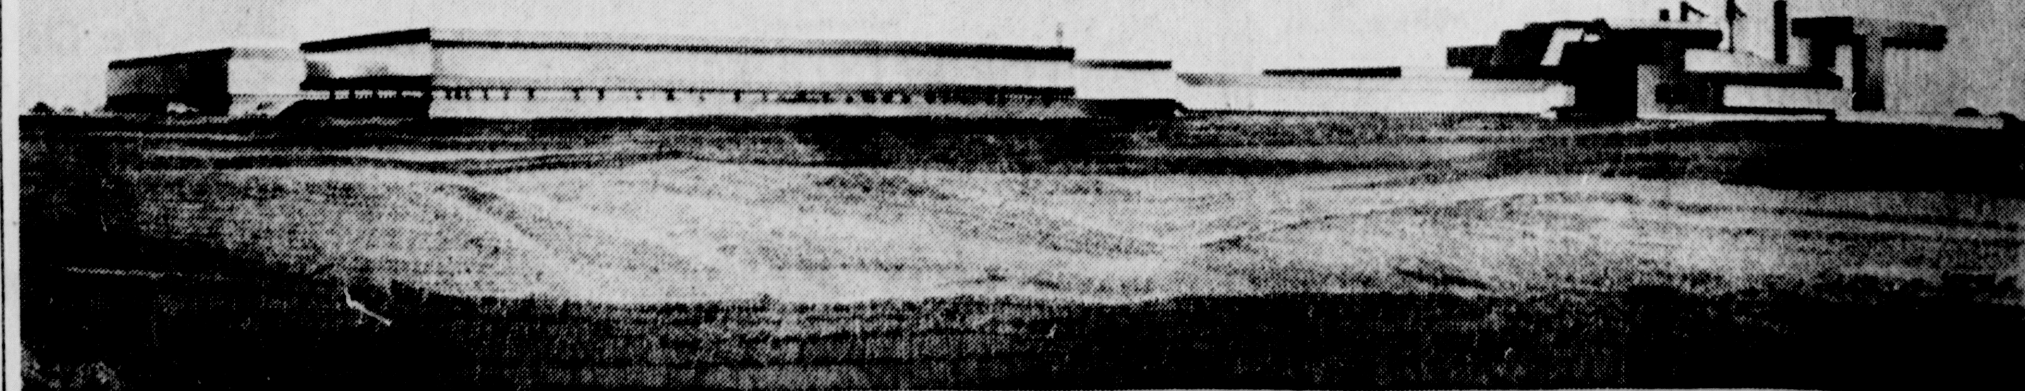

Although RCA officials declined to comment on the number of persons that will be employed at the new plant, unofficial estimates of an initial payroll of 600 and as many as 1,200 employees eventually have been made.

By the end of 1970, employment will be rapidly accelerated and it is expected that eventual employment will add measurably to the economy of the state. At the new Circleville plant, RCA will require engineers and technicians, skilled and semi-skilled tradesmen, production employees as well as management, administrative, supervisory and clerical employees. The majority of the work force will be recruited from the local area.

Brewster announced the appointment of J. G. Vandemark Jr. as personnel manager. His temporary office will be located at the plant site on Route 23.

Brewster explained that the new facility will be operated by the RCA Television Picture Tube Division.

AT present time, RCA produces color picture tubes in the United States at plants in Lancaster and Scranton, Pa., and Marion, Ind. The combined employment of these plants is more than 8,100 persons. RCA recently announced the production of the company's 50 millionth television picture tube — 13 million of this number (Continued on Page 10)

NEW RCA GLASS PLANT — This architect's drawing of RCA's new $19 million glass plant on Route 23, just south of Circleville, Ohio will soon be a reality. The plant will manufacture glass components for RCA's color television picture tubes — and will be in operation in the latter part of 1970. Details on the new plant were made public Friday during a press conference at the L-K Restaurant.

Home Agent Tips

By Marjorie Wolford
Home Economics Agent

Newlyweds — and established families — find that one difficult decision is deciding whether to rent or buy housing. A family economics specialist says that today's housing situation indicates that the decision will not get easier.

The place to start is with your family's housing needs. How much space do you need and want? What activities must you plan for? What housing features do you value most? Defining the essentials can make the decision clearer and so can weighing the pros and cons of each choice.

If you decide to buy, you will have a chance to build up equity through monthly payments and you have a probable hedge against spiraling inflation. The fair market value of the average house increased 4 per cent during 1968. With a 25 per cent down payment, this means a 12 per cent return on your investment. Another plus factor is the income tax savings through mortgage interest deductions.

There are disadvantages, too, such as the problem of accumulating a down payment. The median sales price for a home last year was $23,600, the specialist comments, and a 25 per cent down payment represents a good-sized sum of money. Also, your money is invested once the house is purchased and it may be difficult to take advantage of changing market price situations. You can lose money if a quick move is necessary, especially if you consider broker's commissions and closing costs. And expenses are unpredictable even with a new house.

Renting offers several advantages. No down payment is needed and housing costs are fixed. You may need less furniture and equipment. Renting can give you time to accumulate a down payment for a house and to look over a community. On the other hand, you do not accumulate equity and the landlord takes the tax advantage. Selection tends to be poor, especially if you want to rent a house rather than an apartment.

In the long run, most American families choose to own their own home. In the

Wants Info On Payoffs

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Police Capt. Robert Taylor has taken court action to obtain information which the Justice Department may have withheld in indicting him for allegedly taking gambling payoffs.

Taylor and seven other Columbus policemen are named in federal indictments charging they accepted money to ignore or promote gambling operations.

Taylor's attorney asked federal court Friday for dates, places, times and a description of the activities that allegedly implicate Taylor in numbers game gambling, protection and payoffs.

The motion also seeks names and addresses of other persons in Columbus who allegedly received a winning lottery number from agents of Frank Drunz and Charles Wilkins. The latter are reputed gamblers named as co-conspirators in the indictments.

Defense attorneys and Justice Department officials are scheduled to meet in four days.

Mostyn "Tony" Garret, Route 3, Mt. Sterling, has served as a 4-H club adviser for 13 years. These years as an adviser have been with the Darby Fine and Dandy 4-H Club. Tony also serves on the county Fair Board and is very active in the county Holstein Club and the Pickaway County Dairy Improvement Association. The Garrett family operate a 30-cow Holstein dairy farm.

Emerson Brown, Route 1, Ashville, has been a 4-H club adviser for 13 years. For 12 years he was adviser of the Cloverleaf Pony Club. This year the club was renamed the Cloverleaf Saddle and Spur 4-H Club. Emerson also serves on the Fair Board and is president of the Ashville Riding Club. He and his wife operate the Brown Pony Farm.

According to Billie Blair, extension entomologist at Ohio State University, a producer in northwestern Ohio had an average of 10 European corn borers per plant on November 1, 1969, and he didn't know it.

Four out of every 50 ears were on the ground because the shank had been cut and one out of every 5 stalks was on the ground because of borer damage.

Ten borers per plant, 21,000 plants per acre or 210,000 borers per acre times 30 acres is 6.3 million borers in the field; 6.3 million borers equals 525,000 dozen borers times 70 cents per dozen for fish bait equals $367,500. This is only one of many cases that occur each year because fields are not checked.

Corn borer adults have already been collected in Pickaway County this year. Early planted fields are usually the most severely infested. Treatment of field corn for first brood borers usually will be profitable if 75 per cent of the plants shows leaf feeding in the whorl. Treatment of fields with less than 75 per cent of the plants showing damage is not justified.

USE (1.5 lbs. actual toxicant) carbaryl (Sevin) in the spray or granular formulation. Sprays properly applied (see USDA Farmers' Bulletin No. 2190 for number of nozzles, nozzle arrangement, pressure, etc.) will give satisfactory control.

Add diazinon (7-14 lbs. of 14G-ace) to the European corn borer recommendations in Extension Bulletin 495, 1969, "Suggested Guide for the Use of Insecticides to Control Insects Affecting Field Corn, Small Grains, and Soybeans."

Granules should be applied over the corn so that they drop into the whorl and on top of the leaves. Follow safety precautions on the diazinon label. The crop may be fed to livestock immediately following treatment. Do not apply within seven days of harvesting for grain.

In the past, repeat insecticidal applications have not been necessary in field corn. However, the corn fields should be checked and a repeat application made in 7 days if needed. The above bulletin may be secured at the County Extension Office.

Home Agent Tips

By Marjorie Wolford
Home Economics Agent

Newlyweds — and established families — find that one difficult decision is deciding whether to rent or buy housing. A family economics specialist says that today's housing situation indicates that the decision will not get easier.

The place to start is with your family's housing needs. How much space do you need and want? What activities must you plan for? What housing features do you value most? Defining the essentials can make the decision clearer and so can weighing the pro's and con's of each choice.

If you decide to buy, you will have a chance to build up equity through monthly payments and you have a probable hedge against spiraling inflation. The fair market value of the average house increased 4 per cent during 1968. With a 25 per cent down payment, this means a 12 per cent return on your investment. Another plus factor is the income tax savings through mortgage interest deductions.

There are disadvantages, too, such as the problem of accumulating a down payment. The median sales price for a home last year was $28,000, the specialist comments, and a 25 per cent down payment represents a good-sized sum of money. Also, your money is invested once the house is purchased and it may be difficult to take advantage of changing market price situations. You can lose money if a quick move is necessary, especially if you consider broker's commissions and closing costs. And expenses are unpredictable even with a new house.

Renting offers several advantages. No down payment is needed and housing costs are fixed. You may need less furniture and equipment. Renting can give you time to accumulate a down payment for a house and to look over a community. On the other hand, you do not accumulate equity and the landlord takes the tax advantage. Selection tends to be poor, especially if you want to rent a house rather than an apartment.

In the long run, most American families choose to own their own home. In the U.S., 38 per cent of the families rent housing; 62 per cent are homeowners.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Police Capt. Robert Taylor has taken court action to obtain information which the Justice Department may have withheld in indicting him for allegedly taking gambling payoffs.

Taylor and seven other Columbus policemen are named in federal indictments charging they accepted money to ignore or promote gambling operations.

Taylor's attorney asked federal court Friday for dates, places, times and a description of the activities that allegedly implicate Taylor in numbers game gambling, protection and payoffs.

The motion also seeks names and addresses of other persons in Columbus who allegedly received a winning lottery number from agents of Frank Drungolfer and Charles Wilkins. The latter are reputed gamblers named as co-conspirators in the indictments.

Defense attorneys and Justice Department officials are scheduled to meet in four days.

Circleville Plant Is Part Of RCA Electronic Components Division

RCA PICTURE TUBES — The color television picture tube is one of the most complex consumer products ever mass produced. The glass envelope — consisting of a funnel and a face panel — which houses the electronic components will be manufactured in Circleville at the new RCA plant.

The new Circleville plant will become part of RCA Electronic Components, which has its headquarters located in Harrison, N. J.

This organization is the parent group of four major RCA operating units. They are: Television Picture Tube Division; Industrial Tube Division; Solid State and Receiving Tube Division and Distributor Products. The Television Picture Tube Division will be responsible for the operation of the Circleville plant.

John B. Farese, a veteran of almost 40 years of service with the company, became executive vice president, RCA Electronic Components in 1968. Reporting to Farese is Harry R. Seelen, division vice president and general manager, Television Picture Tube Division. Mr. Seelen has been associated with RCA since 1930 and became head of the Television Picture Tube Division in 1965.

In addition to the glass picture tube parts which will be manufactured in the Circleville plant, the Television Picture Tube Division makes more than 28 different types of color picture tubes as well as many types of tube parts and machinery. The new Circleville plant will become RCA's first glass manufacturing facility.

THE Lancaster and Scranton,

Claim Film Firm Hired 'Panthers'

OAKLAND (AP) — "Black Panther types" wearing berets and black jackets were hired by a Hollywood film company to "enliven the action" during "people's park" demonstrations in Berkeley last month, says sheriff's official.

Thomas L. Houchins, chief of the Alameda County sheriff's criminal division, said "Apparently the protests weren't lively enough for them, so they hired the Panther types to join in."

Houchins told newsmen Friday an investigation disclosed that the Negro youths had been paid by a crew using credit cards issued in the name of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios.

Houchins said a similar hiring by a film producer occurred during demonstrations at the University of California's Berkeley campus March 6. He did not reveal details of that incident.

Black Panther assistant chief of staff June Hilliard said persons taking part in filming during "people's park" demonstrations were not Panthers but "were obviously imposters."

Houchins said the MGM "crew had been in Arizona, shooting student unrest scenes, with actors playing the students."

"When the 'people's park' thing erupted, the director moved everybody to Berkeley for some real life action shots." It wasn't immediately known what the footage was to be used for.

Pa. and Marion, Ind. facilities turn out all of RCA's television picture tubes in the United States. The Lancaster facility is the center of advanced development and engineering for all of the company's picture tube products as well as industrial power and conversion tubes. The Marion plant produces both black and white and color tubes and the Lancaster and Scranton plants produce only color tubes. The combined employment of the three plants is more than 8,100 persons.

During 1968, RCA Electronic Components achieved the most successful year in its history. The entire organization has a total employment of more than 21,000 and operates 12 domestic manufacturing and warehouse facilities in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and California. It also operates facilities in Great Britain, Puerto Rico, Taiwan, Brazil, Argentina, Mexico and Canada — and sells its products worldwide.

The plants of RCA Electronic Components develop and make over 7,000 products for every segment of the electronics industry. These devices and components are produced to extremely exacting technical specifications for a wide range of consumer, industrial, computer, broadcast, military and aerospace electronic equipment. The products vary in size from microscopic chips which contain an entire electronic circuit to giant super power radar tubes that weigh hundreds of pounds. The price tags of RCA's diverse electronic components range from less than a dollar to several thousand dollars.

Scores of RCA's electronic devices have been credited with performing remarkable feats for the Nation's space program. Power transistors produced at the Mountaintop, Pa. and Findlay, Ohio plants, are used in the Minuteman Polaris and Poseidon Missiles. Other RCA components have served important functions in the ground support equipment associated with every major space program, as well as in many space vehicles which have helped scientists and astronauts unlock the secrets of outer space.

Among the other products made by RCA Electronic Components are solid-state devices, industrial power tubes, television camera tubes, microwave devices, integrated circuits, direct energy-conversion devices, super-conductive products, liquid crystals, lasers, test equipment for electronic servicing, batteries, plus a wide variety of devices for aerospace military communications, industrial, broadcast and entertainment applications.

Glass Used In TV Tube 'Envelopes'

Glass is used in the envelope of a color television picture tube chiefly because it is transparent, maintains a good vacuum and acts as an electrical insulator.

Glass was first artificially produced over 4,000 years ago, and man continues to improve both material and processing techniques to gain the maximum benefits offered by one of nature's most common materials.

Specialized glass used in RCA color TV picture tubes is an inorganic substance prepared by fusing a number of dry solid materials in a furnace at a temperature of 2,700 degrees Fahrenheit.

The basic raw materials are sand, soda ash, potash, feldspar and lime. Additional chemicals are added to enhance the final electrical and physical properties of the product.

LEAD oxide is added for x-ray absorption and various raw materials which are then mixed in the batch house and conveyed to the two melting tanks. At this point, similar waste or broken glasses are added to speed the melting and mixing process.

The glass is fused in continuous melters in operation 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The dried mixed batch is then poured into one end of the large ceramic-lined tanks and molten glass is drawn from the other end.

Carefully controlled gobbs of molten glass are dropped into the forming mold and, with the aid of pressurized plungers, the glass is shaped.

Final Rites For Judy Garland Held

NEW YORK (AP) — It was an hour after they carried the yellow rose-draped casket of Judy Garland from the Frank E. Campbell funeral chapel. Outside several hundred faithful fans remained.

"It's all over, they have all gone," announced a policeman. But the crowd clung stubbornly to the scene, resisting the final moment of admitting that their star was gone.

Judy's great gift was that she could sing a song so it would break your heart," Mason had told an assembly of about 125 invited guests at the private service.

They included Ray Bolger, who played the Scarecrow to Miss Garland's Dorothy in "The Wizard of Oz," and Harold Arlen, who wrote the song "Over the Rainbow" that became the singer's vocal signature.

Others were Lauren Bacall, Johnny Mercer, Freddie Bartholomew, Otto Preminger and Betty Comden and Adolph Green. Mayor and Mrs. John V. Lindsay attended as did Mrs. Patricia Kennedy Lawford.

Astronauts In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Not only have the past seven years of the U.S. Space program narrowed the technology gap between the United States and Russia, but it could provide a unifying factor for the nation, Apollo 10 astronauts said here Friday.

"Seven years ago, there was a serious technological gap between us and Russia," said Col. Tom Stafford. "We have now closed that gap. In some areas, we are so far ahead, you wouldn't believe it."

"If we used all of our political and social capabilities to pull together the technology we have we could solve the problems of housing, transportation, air and water pollution and so on," the astronaut said.

Cmdr. Gene Cernan said: "Most of us want to wave the flag, but we're too embarrassed. We need a cause, and wars no longer provide us with one."

The astronauts were in Cleveland for a six-hour tour. They first visited the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Lewis Research Center.

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official Weather Bureau summary for Ohio:

Cooler and drier air was moving into northern Ohio today, where highs in the 80s were expected.

More 90-degree weather was predicted in the southern half of the state.

Sunny skies were forecast for all of Ohio except near the Ohio River, where there was a chance of some afternoon thundershowers.

Highs Friday ranged from 90 at Dayton to 83 in Cincinnati.

—FORECASTS—

OHIO—Mostly sunny Sunday. Cooler north and central with chance of thundershowers south. Fair tonight. Cooler north, low in the 60s north to 70s south.

NORTHWEST, NORTHEAST CENTRAL, EAST CENTRAL—Mostly sunny and a little cooler Sunday, high in the 80s. Fair and cooler tonight, low in the 60s. Outlook for Monday, warm and humid with chance of thundershowers.

SOUTHWEST, SOUTHEAST—Mostly sunny and little change in temperatures Sunday with a chance of afternoon and evening thundershowers. Highs near 90. Fair and warm tonight, low in the 70s. Outlook for Monday, warm and humid with chance of thundershowers.

Rhodes Says Seaway Tolls Should End

MENESSA, N. Y. (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes used a dedication ceremony at the St. Lawrence Seaway Friday to propose the abolition of seaway toll charges, which he calls discriminatory.

Rhodes told officials from the U. S. Department of Transportation that requires toll and user fees.

"It is hard to believe," Rhodes said, "so important an artery of transportation and trade should be so discriminated against."

Rhodes said an interstate development council is needed to coordinate and explore the seaway's potential.

He also called for a promotional program to convince other states and nations of "the advantage of doing business with the Midwest," via the St. Lawrence.

President Nixon and Canada's Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau rededicated the seaway in ceremonies commemorating its 10th anniversary.

Weeds In Beans May Add To Harvest Losses

By GEORGE HAMRICK
County Extension Agent, Agriculture

Good soybean harvesting practices begin right now by getting rid of those weeds in your soybean fields, advises Delbert M. Byg, extension agricultural engineer, Ohio State University.

Weeds in soybean fields at harvest time will reduce yield, increase harvest losses, increase grain damage and slow the harvest operation, Byg adds.

Research work performed last year by Ralph Nave, Agricultural Engineering for ARS at the University of Illinois indicates the following:

Threshing and separating losses were considerably higher when combining weedy beans. Harvesting weedy soybeans at two miles per hour resulted in losses as high as those found when combining at 4 M.P.H. in weed-free beans. A 9 per cent total loss occurred.

SPEEDS of one mile per hour in weedy soybeans produced an equivalent loss to going three miles per hour in weed-free beans, about a 7 per cent total loss.

In weedy beans, harvesting losses increased rapidly with an increase in ground speed. Losses were about 7 per cent at one mile per hour and 12.5 per cent at three miles per hour.

A yield reduction of 25 per cent was found where there was a controlled weed infestation of one pig weed per foot of row of Amsoy beans planted in 30-inch rows. The weed-free plots yielded 60 bushels per acre compared to 45 in the weedy plots.

If weeds are showing up in your fields, you better get that cultivator ready to go; but, use it wisely, Byg cautions. Cultivate shallow — about one to 1½ inches deep — so you won't prune the soybean roots.

And don't "earth up" around the beans. Earthing up or ridging the rows will make it difficult to cut beans "below" the pods at harvest time. This will increase the shatter and stubble loss.

Circleville Plant Is Part Of RCA Electronic Components Division

RCA PICTURE TUBES — The color television picture tube is one of the most complex consumer products ever mass produced. The glass envelope — consisting of a funnel and a face panel — which houses the electronic components will be manufactured in Circleville at the new RCA plant.

The new Circleville plant will become part of RCA Electronic Components, which has its headquarters located in Harrison, N. J.

This organization is the parent group of four major RCA operating units. They are: Television Picture Tube Division; Industrial Tube Division; Solid State and Receiving Tube Division and Distributor Products. The Television Picture Tube Division will be responsible for the operation of the Circleville plant.

John B. Farese, a veteran of almost 40 years of service with the company, became executive vice president, RCA Electronic Components in 1968. Reporting to Farese is Harry R. Seelen, division vice president and general manager, Television Picture Tube Division. Mr. Seelen has been associated with RCA since 1930 and became head of the Television Picture Tube Division in 1965.

In addition to the glass picture tube parts which will be manufactured in the Circleville plant, the Television Picture Tube Division makes more than 28 different types of color picture tubes as well as many types of tube parts and machinery. The new Circleville plant will become RCA's first glass manufacturing facility.

Claim Film Firm Hired 'Panthers'

OAKLAND (AP) — "Black Panther types" wearing berets and black jackets were hired by a Hollywood film company to "enliven the action" during "people's park" demonstrations in Berkeley last month, says sheriff's official.

Thomas L. Houchins, chief of the Alameda County sheriff's criminal division, said "Apparently the protests weren't lively enough for them, so they hired the Panther types to join in."

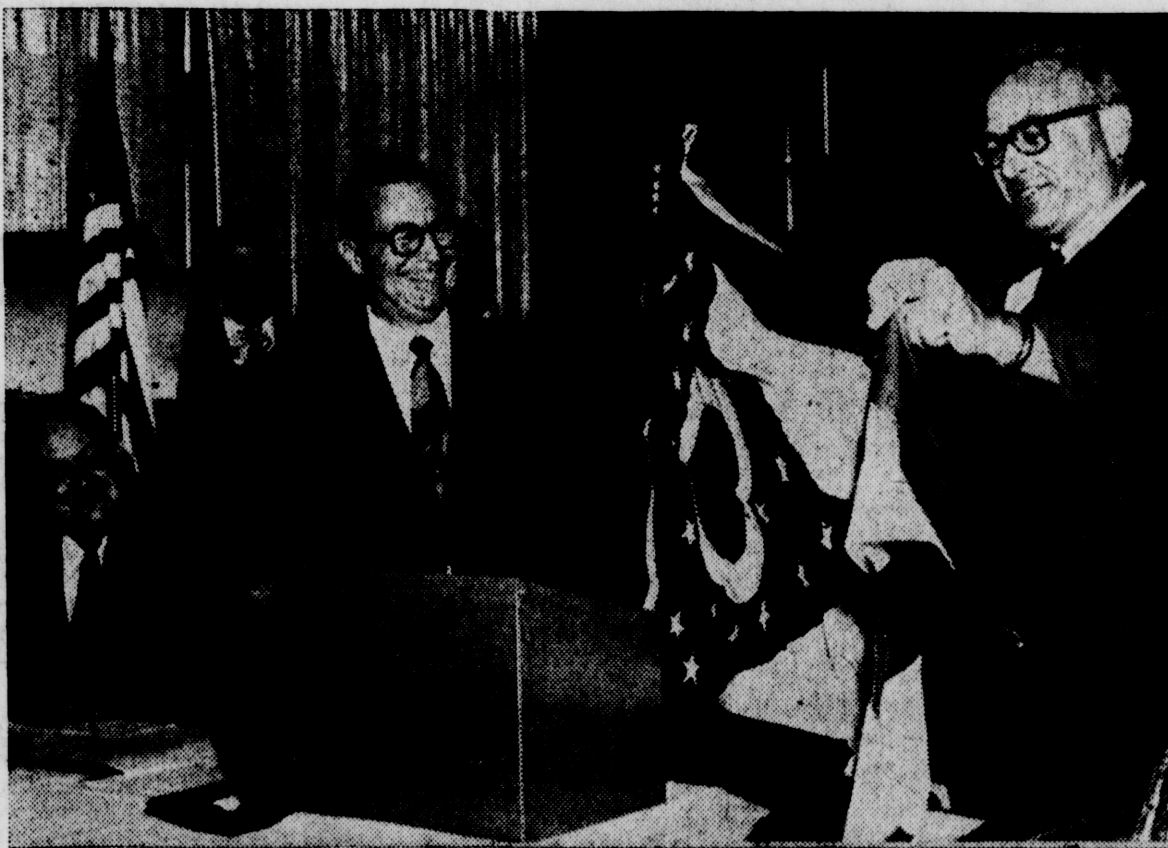

Houchins told newsmen Friday an investigation disclosed that the Negro youths had been paid by a crew using credit cards issued in the name of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios.

Houchins said a similar hiring by a film producer occurred during demonstrations at the University of California's Berkeley campus March 6. He did not reveal details of that incident.

Black Panther assistant chief of staff June Hilliard said persons taking part in filming during "people's park" demonstrations were not Panthers but "were obviously imposters."

Houchins said the MGM "crew had been in Arizona, shooting student unrest scenes, with actors playing the students."

"When the 'people's park' thing erupted, the director moved everybody to Berkeley for some real life action shots." It wasn't immediately known what the footage was to be used for.

Conflict Of Interest

How to avoid possible conflicts of interest for appointees to high government positions who hold sizable blocks of stock or other interests in private concerns has been a recurring problem. In recent years it has become the main stumbling block to confirmation of presidential appointments by the Senate.

Presumably there is no point of contention with appointees possessing modest holdings. The problem with forcing major stockholders to divest themselves is several-fold.

It seems unfair to force a man who enjoys position in the business world to cut all ties, including stock holdings, for a position which may last a few years at best.

A baffling problem is the method of divestiture. Take the case of Deputy Secretary of Defense David Packard. Packard is an immensely wealthy man, who held $300 million worth of stock in a company doing a sizable business with the Pentagon.

To force Packard to sell his shares on the open market could have seriously deflated their price and Packard and all other stockholders of the company might have suffered considerable losses. Packard found a solution to the dilemma in his case by establishing a charitable trust with his holdings.

Sen. Thomas McIntyre has proposed a plan which he contends might solve the problem. Under his proposal, an appointee who found himself caught in a conflict-of-interest situation could sell his holdings to the Treasury at market value, less an approximation of the federal taxes he would owe. The Treasury would hold the stock for years, selling small parcels every few months to avoid driving the price down.

This might seem to be a satisfactory way out, except that in the case of holdings such as those of Packard and some other recent appointees, the Treasury could find itself custodian of controlling interest in some sizable corporations.

How the department would exercise its management options under those circumstances would require delineation.

Food Prices Poised

Throughout the long history of a rising cost of living, one fact has stood out above all others. The main item on any consumer's shopping list—food—has not been near the top of the items pushing the cost of living up.

If the May wholesale food price increase of eight-tenths on one per cent is an indicator, that could change in the near future. The Bureau of Labor Statistics, which maintains the cost indexes, admits to being at a loss to explain the sudden jump.

Among the food price increases accounting for the overall rise were an 18.6 per cent increase in fruits and vegetables, 6.1 per cent in processed meats, poultry and fish, and 2.1 per cent in sugar.

Some of these commodities normally fluctuate widely with the season, but the May increases were considerably higher than usual. Increases in retail prices can be expected to follow.

Perhaps one reason why the bureau is particularly upset by the May performance is that it continued the 1969 pattern of prices rising faster and more substantially than predicted by the bureau.

According To Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Thirteen years ago Florence Greenberg was a Passaic, N.J., housewife with two growing teen-age children and a growing feeling herself that she had become trapped by her home chores.

She looked around for something else to do.

"My son Stanley, then only 14, had written a song so I decided to sell it," she recalled. But she found the doors of Manhattan music publishers firmly closed.

"So I decided to go into business myself," said Mrs. Greenberg. All she had to start with was a $30,000 family inheritance and a determination to prove she could do more with her life than keep a house clean.

Today at 51, Mrs. Greenberg, a pleasant-faced woman with brown hair and soft brown eyes, is the only woman president of a major record company. Her firm, Scepter Records, has turned out some 100 million discs, will take in an estimated $8 million this year, and now has worldwide distribution.

She never did get around to recording the song written by her son, now an executive with her organization. Her first record was "I Met Him on a Sunday," made by the Chirelles, a young Negro rock 'n' roll group discovered by her teenage daughter, Mary Jane.

"That first record cost us only $400 to produce—but it got us off to a good start," said Mrs. Greenberg.

Although her musical background consisted chiefly of a few piano lessons taken in her youth, she found she had a shrewd ability to pick new talent and a natural skill at getting along with people.

She has helped foster the careers of Dionne Warwick, Chuck Jackson, the Isley brothers, B.J. Thomas and many others.

Mrs. Greenberg says she has found it no handicap to be a woman in a business that has been traditionally dominated by men.

"If you are a floozy, men laugh at you. But if you are a

Voting Rights Bill Opposed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration's proposal to junk the expired voting rights act in favor of extending some provisions nationwide has stirred opposition from key Democrats and Republicans.

The administration plan presented before a House judiciary subcommittee Thursday by Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, "bristles with difficulties," said Chairman Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y.

"This is a weaker voting rights act than the present one," said Rep. William M. McCulloch, R-Ohio, leading Republican spokesman for civil rights in the House.

Most of the other Republican members of the subcommittee said they, too, favor extending the 1965 Voting Rights Act for another five years.

decent woman, they will always show courtesy to you and try to give you a break."

This is her advice to other wives who aspire to an escape from household boredom.

"Be sincere in your own ambitions. It is pointless for a woman to stand by her kitchen sink and dream of how she'd like to be Miss America. She must try to do something that reflects her sincere goals."

Mrs. Greenberg was divorced from her accountant husband five years ago and feels that her own success may have been a factor in the breakup of their marriage.

"If a housewife wants to keep her husband happy," she said frankly, "she had better try a small challenge outside the home, not one so big that she becomes a financial competitor of her husband."

"How can you pick up a man after work in a Rolls-Royce and still have him love you as a woman?"

"Hey, Mom! I forgot my dump truck!"

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

TWO PROFESSORS of archaeology, avows Jan Harrison, of Norristown, Pa., were on a dig when they came upon a very odd rock formation. Furthermore, a strange, rhythmic sound seemed to be emanating from the rock, not unlike a heartbeat. "What do you suppose this can be?" one of the archaeologists wondered. Quoth his companion, "Doctor, living stone, I presume."

Polk and Company, publishers of innumerable city directories, would have you know that the first street in the country is Second Street! There are more Second Streets in the U.S. than those bearing any other name. Park Street is runner-up, Third Street is third, Fourth is fourth, Fifth is fifth, and Main is sixth. Poor old First Street struggles in seventh!

What are all those sappy TV teen-age serials doing to the morale of our youngsters? Exhibit A for the day is this letter sent home from camp by a 12-year-old lass:

"Dear Mom and Pop: Please don't worry because I think this is going to turn out O.K.—but Saturday night a dreamy new counselor sneaked me away from the marshmallow roast, and started kissing me. I had a wonderful time and think he did, too. Love, Daphne. P.S. I made all that up about the dreamy counselor. I just wanted to fill up the page."

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

The scientific literature is filled with small bits of added information that eventually may mean both the prevention and the cure of arthritis. The hundreds of thousands of victims of one or more forms of arthritis wait impatiently for the time to come when their pain and stiffness in the joints will be controlled and once again allow them complete activity.

A wide variety of drugs have been tried with moderate success in some cases and without any real results in others. The fact that there are so many drugs on the market simply means that there is no one drug that will be satisfactory in every instance.

A new anti-arthritis drug is now being used with a considerable amount of success and enthusiasm in England. It seems that the drug has a number of advantages over those that were previously used, for it relieves pain and the stiffness of the joints without causing any severe upsets of the stomach. This is, indeed, a significant advance especially if there are no marked side effects.

The new drug, ibuprofen has passed very critical tests in New Zealand and in Great Britain in experimental animals by those who were seeking to learn its value.

A large series of patients with arthritis have been tested with the new drug and at this time have responded well without unusual toxic reactions. These cases were carefully chosen from a vast group that previously had not reacted satisfactorily to available drugs. Soon clinical trials in America will be released to physicians and if the drugs lives up to its promise and if it is cleared for safety by the health officials, it will be available everywhere in the United States.

This exciting drug was reported by Dr. Malcolm Thompson of the University of New Castle-upon-Tyne. He and Dr. John R. Duthie of Edinburgh feel that the anti-inflammatory effects of ibuprofen deserve the consideration it now is receiving.

A very important contribution of the Atomic Energy Commission's research activity is a new instrument that will be of tremendous value to the blind. Developed at the Aronne National Laboratory, a moving belt has been created to make it far less difficult for the blind to read Braille. It is expected that this will markedly reduce the difficulty of reading and increase the speed, with very little practice.

This brilliant technique is based on a method of transcribing symbols from an ordinary magnetic tape and playing them back with the raised patterns of Braille.

Even sophisticated physicians cannot help but be impressed by the myriad people who unselfishly give their scientific energies to furthering the happiness and productivity of the handicapped.

Why adhesions form in the abdomen after some kinds of surgery still remains a great secret. It is known that some people have a tendency to form adhesions even when the surgery is relatively minor and tissues handled with great gentleness. Many techniques have been devised to prevent adhesions. A new one is now being tried in experimental animals at the University of Miami by Dr. James A. O'Leary and a group of co-workers. A special kind of liquid silicone seems to have some potential in reducing adhesions after surgery.

Apollo 11 Crew Starts Testing For Moon Shot

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Apollo 11 launch crew Friday started a seven-day countdown rehearsal to determine whether the rocket and spaceship are ready to send men on a moon-landing mission next month.

The rehearsal started at one minute after midnight when several systems aboard the spacecraft were fed electrical power. The first phase is to end next Wednesday with a mock liftoff of the fully fueled Saturn 5 rocket.

The next day, with fuel tanks emptied, the three astronauts are to climb into their spaceship atop the rocket to run through the final hours of a second countdown and several hours of simulated flight.

A successful test will clear the way for Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Michael Collins to rocket toward the moon July 16.

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — A newly formed "Businessmen's Education Fund" began mailings this week to 25,000 business executives soliciting their opinions on the so-called military-industrial complex.

The common concern of the wealthy and prominent businessmen so far aligned with the organization is the "militarization of American society." Close to $500,000 is said to have been pledged so far.

The goal of the group, which has shunned any publicity until now, is to seek different viewpoints on national security, redefine concepts of security and redirect national priorities.

A letter, and an article highly critical of "militarism," written by Gen. David M. Shoup, former Marine Corps commandant, are being sent to each of 12,500 manufacturing company presidents and as many corporate directors.

"We want this Shoup article to be a Paul Revere type thing," said Harold Willens of Los Angeles, founder of BEF.

Willens said the purpose of the mailings is to survey businessmen's opinions on military spending and determine whether or not they are interested in the movement. Later, an attempt may be made to involve them actively.

Said Winfield Best, administrative director of the fund, "These are the guys with credibility in this country and with the government."

Willens, president of Factory Equipment Supply Corp. and a real estate developer, said he fears that huge military budgets are diminishing America's resources, weakening the currency, retarding productivity and denying the nation the funds and energies needed for domestic progress.

Armored Vests For Viet Gls Unsafe, Woman Solon Says

By LAWRENCE L. KNOTSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Serious life-and-death defects have been detected in large numbers of armored vests shipped to Vietnam for the use of U.S. combat troops, Rep. Margaret M. Heckler, R-Mass., said Friday.

Mrs. Heckler said at a news conference that she met Thursday night with Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird and gave him evidence which she said indicates a large percentage of some 14,000 lightweight, ceramic vests shipped to Vietnam are unsafe.

"I am not claiming that all of these 14,000 vests are defective," Mrs. Heckler said. "But I do believe they have not been subjected to adequate tests and unfortunately some of those used in this very sensitive area do contain serious defects."

She said she fears U.S. ground troops might get a false sense of security in combat when using the vests and take risks they might otherwise avoid.

"While I oppose this war," she said, "it would be nonetheless unforgivable not to provide our fighting men with the best possible personal armor our technological advances can provide."

Mrs. Heckler said the 14,000 vests shipped to Vietnam are part of a $16-million contract for the manufacture of 55,000 vests by the Carbide and Carbon Co., Niagara Falls, N.Y. She said inspectors have found such serious defects as visible or invisible cracks, shrinkage holes, voids inside the armor and other structural weaknesses.

Mrs. Heckler said she told Laird that a quality audit experts from the federally operated Natick Laboratory in Massachusetts revealed that 53 of 64 armor plates or 84 per cent of the samples contained a major defect. She said the disclosure was sent to Vietnam.

should have been cause for rejection of the lot. She said the entire lot of about 2,000 vests was sent to Vietnam.

Through this 17-year project each person donating a pint of blood at the local center receives one dozen roses from members of the Columbus Allied Florist Association. The Central Ohio Blood Program, of which Pickaway County is a member, provides blood to 50 hospitals in 23 Central Ohio counties. Rose week was formed to have additional blood on hand in order to meet the emergency needs over the July 4th holiday weekend which is plagued with highway traffic accidents. Over 700 donors are expected to receive a dozen roses.

Dear Abby: They Won't Be Popular Soon!

DEAR ABBY: How do you tell someone (a relative) that it's time she and her husband gave a party? When this couple moved to town three years ago, they didn't know a soul. We introduced them to all of our friends, and now our friends are their friends too.

They are attractive, charming people and well-liked by all who know them, so they are very popular, but if they don't hurry up and start inviting some of these people back, they won't be popular much longer.

Since we did sponsor them, we feel somewhat responsible for their social sins of omission. What do we do? I can hardly hold my head up.

NO TOWN, PLEASE
DEAR NO: It's not necessary to stick your neck out in order to hold your head up. If you "like" this couple and are seriously concerned about their threatened loss of popularity as well as the reflection on yourselves, tell the lady in a nice way that if she's planning to entertain, you'll be glad to help her. If she doesn't get the drift, well, you've done your part.

DEAR ABBY: In a few weeks I am going to become an American citizen. What is the correct thing to do on this occasion? Do you send out announcements or invitations to the ceremony? It is open to the public, but does this mean family only?

Should I have cards printed? It is such a big event for me I want to do something, but I don't know what. Can you help me?

GOP Group Gets Patronage Bite

By JOHN BECKLER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republican National Committee has been given an enlarged role in dispensing patronage—a move intended to check a major rank and file complaint that the Nixon administration has been slow to divide government jobs among party members.

From now on, most job requests will be channeled through the committee, which will send on to the White House the names of those it feels most worthy of getting an appointment.

There is no guarantee the committee's applicant will get the job, but the White House has promised to give special attention to such requests.

The new procedure was outlined to the committee Friday by Harry Dent, a White House aide serving as President Nixon's specialist in Republican Party affairs.

Dent brought the welcome news to the committee at a closed door session of its three-day meeting, set to conclude today. He summed up his remarks later for newsmen.

Some indication of the regulars' feeling on the subject was the rousing cheer Friday when it was pointed out that of 80 appointments by Commerce Secretary Maurice Stans, only one has gone to a Democrat.

The new procedure will accomplish the dual purpose of diverting at least some of the criticism from the White House and giving the party chiefs a bigger voice in dispensing patronage. The GOP leaders also hope it will strengthen the party organization all the way down the line.

Ely Peterson, vice chairman of the committee, has been placed in charge of the division that will handle patronage much of which involves jobs on various government boards and commissions.

The procedure is not intended for filling top administration positions.

Dent has also set up a new procedure involving the committee that is designed to keep a check on the flow of complaints or requests to various government agencies. Instead of going directly to the agency involved, party members will be asked to make their request or complaint to the national committee.

One reason for the procedure, Dent said, is to make sure no improper requests—such as an attempt to influence a decision by a regulatory agency—get through.

Work On Dart-Firing Rifle Delayed By Test Problems

WASHINGTON (AP) — Development of an important new Army rifle that has already cost $20 million over the last seven years has been set back for up to a year and a half because of engineering deficiencies.

Dr. John S. Foster, Pentagon research and engineering director, told Congress earlier this month the rifle has been delayed "because of engineering deficiencies uncovered in testing."

Five different problems have beset the rifle, called a Special Purpose Individual Weapons, according to the Army, involving unreliable functioning, parts life, noise level, muzzle flash and lack of a satisfactory tracer cartridge.

The Army said it hopes to get the deficiencies corrected within the next 12 to 18 months.

The SPIW is one of several possible new weapons for the future being explored under the Army's Small Arms Program, aimed at "increasing the individual soldier's probability of a hit and providing more ammunition for a given combat load."

The small darts, or "flechettes", would be fired from the rifle at a very high velocity which engineers say would give them killing power roughly equivalent to heavier bullets.

Because of their light weight, the soldier could carry many more darts than bullets.

The model now farthest along in development would be fitted with a 60 round drum magazine compared with the 20 rounds in the magazine of the conventional M16 lightweight rifle now in use.

The SPIW itself would weigh about seven pounds, roughly the same as the M16.

An infantryman, using a "selector lever" on the side of the rifle, could choose one of three modes of fire—single shot, a burst of three rounds or fully automatic which would spray a stream of the darts.

Reset Execution Date For Slayer

CINCINNATI (AP)—The 1st District Court of Appeals, which earlier this week upheld the conviction of Ellis Vails, 42, on two murder charges, Friday reset his execution for Oct. 27.

Vails was convicted of slaying his girl friend, Beatrice Thomas 43, and her mother, Marie Simpson, 69, here on July 6, 1968.

Edward the Confessor designed and built Westminster Abbey from 1050 to 1065. In 1066 William the Conqueror was crowned there, a precedent that English monarchs have since followed. From 1376 to 1547, the House of Commons met regularly in the refectory.

DEAR ABBY: How do you tell someone (a relative) that it's time she and her husband gave a party? When this couple moved to town three years ago, they didn't know a soul. We introduced them to all of our friends, and now our friends are their friends too.

They are attractive, charming people and well-liked by all who know them, so they are very popular, but if they don't hurry up and start inviting some of these people back, they won't be popular much longer.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have enjoyed your column very much. I have never written to anyone for advice before, but now I feel I should.

First let me explain that we have been happily married for 27 years, have 3 wonderful children and 5 grandchildren, so we are not kids.

Now, the problem: I would just love to sleep on satin sheets, and now I see that they are on sale and I want to buy some, but my husband says that no man would sleep on satin sheets! We have decided to let you decide whether I should buy them or not.

"YES OR NO?"
DEAR YES: Buy one set! If your man sleeps on them with no complaints, buy more.

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl of 17 who needs some advice badly. My boyfriend is a very nice guy, but he asks me questions which are none of his business.

He says if I don't tell him what he wants to know it means I don't love him or trust him. He also says that no matter what I tell him about myself, he won't hold it against me.

We've been going together for a year, and this is the only thing we ever fight about.

He insists that the past should be forgotten, yet he keeps nagging me to tell him everything about mine. I never ask him any questions about his.

What should I do, Abby? I really love him, and I don't want to lose him.

IN A CRUNCH
DEAR IN: Tell your inquisitive boyfriend that he is absolutely right he past should be forgotten, and if he persists in questioning you, it means he doesn't love or trust YOU.

Miss Sally Linn Becomes Bride Of Bruce Helwagen

MRS. ROBERT BRUCE HELWAGEN

Vases of white and yellow gladioli, white mums and yellow carnations, baskets of huckleberry and candelabra adorned the altar of Community United Methodist Church for the wedding of Miss Sally Linn and Lt. Robert Bruce Helwagen.

The Rev. Paul I. Wachs performed the double ring ceremony 6:30 p.m. June 15.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Linn, Route 3 and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Helwagen, 813 N. Court St.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride approached the altar down the aisle where pews were marked with white satin bows. She selected for her wedding day a floor length gown of white silk organza with scalloped neckline, empire waist and elbow length bell sleeves. The bodice and skirt were enhanced with Chantilly lace appliques and pearls. The Watteau train was of Chantilly lace. A crown of Alencon lace accented with crystals and pearls was attached to four tiers of elbow length English illusion and she carried a cascade arrangement of white stephanotis and shattered carnations centered with a yellow throat white orchid. Her only jewelry was a cameo necklace, a gift from the groom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Susannah Krieger, sister of the bride. She was attired in a sleeveless maize jakarta A-line gown with white lace bodice sprinkled with yellow centered daisies. A shallow scoop neckline with a low square back accented with a panel of matching lace sprinkled with daisies. Her headdress was of maize pouff illusion on pearl edged comb flowers and she carried a basket of yellow centered daisies.

The junior bridesmaid, Johanna Linn, sister of the bride, was dressed identically to the matron of honor.

Steven Helwagen, brother of the groom, performed the duties of best man. Ushers were Chuck Smith and Dick Patrick, friends of the groom; Jeff Linn and Scott Linn, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Linn wore for her daughter's wedding a pastel yellow sheath dress with matching lace coat and deep yellow accessories. Mrs. Helwagen selected a mint green coat dress with jeweled buttons and matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of Eucharist lilies.

A reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a four tiered cake topped with yellow roses. Yellow roses and greenery surrounded the base of the cake. The punch tables were covered with yellow net skirts.

Farm Bureau Women Hear Talk On Rabies

Ralph Cessna, Ohio Farm Bureau Director of Councils, described a county-wide rabies clinic when the Pickaway County Farm Bureau Women's Committee met recently at the Farm Bureau home. He explained how Farm Bureau members, the county health department, county veterinarian Assn., and local fire departments cooperated to conduct four rabies clinics in Lorain County when he served as a Farm Bureau organization director there. Pickaway County Farm Bureau women will be contacting council members to learn if such clinics could be established in this county.

Mrs. John Moss Sr. presided over the meeting and Mrs. Carl Martin presented devotions.

Nelson Stevens, organization director reported that extended telephone service between Circleville and Ashville is now being delayed with the Public Utilities Commission. He urged all interested citizens to write Carl Johnson, Chairman, Public Utilities Commission of Ohio, 111 N. High St., Columbus, Ohio 43215, and state concern for speeding up this service.

Stevens also suggested writing state representative Myrl Shoemaker, Bourneville, and state senator Harry Armstrong, Logan, to express our concern and desires for legislation of taxation for education.

Farm Bureau women attending this meeting were Mrs. Cecil Noecker, Mrs. Marie Gibson, Miss Mary Clark, Mrs. Robert A. Jones, Mrs. Fred McCoy, Mrs. Russell Yaple, Mrs. Arthur Leist, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Luther List, Mrs. Moss, and Mrs. Charles Rose.

Loyal Daughters Schedule Picnic

The Loyal Daughters Class of the Good Shepherd United Methodist Church will hold a picnic 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John Kerns, 910 Atwater Ave.

Mrs. Kerns will be assisted by Mrs. Clarence Willoughby and Mrs. Cleon Webb. The program will be directed by Mrs. Frank Hawkes, Mrs. Walter Mavis and Mrs. Kenneth Schwalbach.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the parents of the groom on Saturday evening at Wardell's Party Home for members of the wedding party.

MRS. GEORGE WILLIAM REESER

Miss Susan L. Carpenter Weds George W. Reeser

The Heidelberg United Church of Christ in Stoutsville was decorated with standing baskets of gladioli and daisy pom poms, large ferns, candelabra and white satin bows on the pews for the wedding of Miss Susan Louise Carpenter and George William Reeser.

The Rev. Ray Bethel performed the double ring ceremony 7:30 p.m. Saturday, June 1, for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Carpenter, Route 1, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reeser, 600 Renick Ave.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Jerry Medert, organist, and Roy Rhoads, vocalist. Preceding the ceremony selections included "Through The Years," "One Hand, One Heart," and "Because" and during the ceremony "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride selected for her wedding a white floor length gown of organza with A-line skirt and empire waist. The bishop sleeves and stand-up collar were trimmed in Venice lace and covered buttons accented the back of the waist. The chapel length train was trimmed with Venice lace angels along the edge. The elbow length veil of illusion was held by a headpiece of an organza bow with a cluster of Venice lace daisies. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow rosebuds and white pom poms daisies. Her only jewelry was pearl earrings, a gift from the groom.

Miss Nancy Campbell of Cleveland was maid of honor and Mrs. Sandra Brown was matron of honor. They were attired in floor length gowns of mint green. The linen sleeveless gowns were in the A-line design with a band of lace around the collar. Their headpieces were matching bows with brief illusion veils and they carried baskets of green carnations and white pom poms daisies. Mrs. Sandra Jordan, cousin of the bride was bridesmatron. Bridesmaids were Miss Debbie Huffer of Lebanon, cousin of the bride and Miss Susan Davis of Cleveland. They were dressed identically to the honor attendants in peach and carried baskets of tangerine carnations and white pom poms daisies. All the attendants wore pearl earrings, gifts from the bride.

Flower girl was Miss Lori Archer. She wore a floor length mint green dress trimmed in white lace and carried a basket of flower petals. Master Eric Archer was ring bearer.

Thomas Perkins served as best man and ushers were Warren Lutz Jr., James Barr, James Montgomery and Harold Reeser.

Mrs. Carpenter wore for her daughter's wedding a mint green dress of nylon organza trimmed in brocade with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Reeser was attired in a pale pink linen dress with appliqued flowers and white accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds.

A reception in the social rooms of the church immediately followed the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a four tiered cake topped with cherubs and tiny flowers. Arrangements of tangerine carnations and daisies graced the tables. A cluster of white bells hung over the gift table.

Hostesses were Mrs. Mildred Justus, Mrs. Kate Smith, Mrs. Dorothy Arledge and Mrs. Thelma Brown.

For her going-away costume, the bride wore a sleeveless

Pickaway Social Club Acquires Meeting Place

The Pickaway Social Club met Thursday June 26 in the basement of St. Joseph's Catholic Church. The ladies of the Altar Society were hostesses to the group, serving cookies, coffee and iced tea at noon, supplementing the sack lunches brought by the guests.

Activities for the day included playing cards, knitting, embroidery, piecing a wool comforter top and sewing on pajamas which will be sent for the use of the patients aboard the hospital ship HOPE on her next voyage, which will begin in September, to Tunisia. The group sent a gift of money to HOPE earlier in the year, and will have 11 pairs of pajamas finished within a short time. Some of the people attending just enjoyed visiting for the day.

During a brief business meeting it was decided not to meet during July and August. The next meeting will be Sept. 25 in the basement of the VFW Club on N. Court St. Mrs. H. O. Caldwell of Lockbourne is scheduled to show pictures of a trip made by herself and husband to Russia last fall. Some discussion was held on having another trip to Kingwood Center in Mansfield in October, to see the chrysanthemums.

The Pickaway Social Club has been sponsored during the past year by the Council of Church Women. Ten meetings have been held, each one in a different church, with the ladies of each church being hostesses when the group met in their particular church. It is hoped that beginning in September, the meetings will be held each month in the same place, and that by doing this, more members will be able to come. Men especially are urged to

MRS. ROBERT BRUCE HELWAGEN

Vases of white and yellow gladioli, white mums and yellow carnations, baskets of huckleberry and candelabra adorned the altar of Community United Methodist Church for the wedding of Miss Sally Linn and Lt. Robert Bruce Helwagen.

The Rev. Paul I. Wachs performed the double ring ceremony 6:30 p.m. June 15.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Linn, Route 3 and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Helwagen, 813 N. Court St.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride approached the altar down the aisle where pews were marked with white satin bows. She selected for her wedding day a floor length gown of white silk organza with scalloped neckline, empire waist and elbow length bell sleeves.

The bodice and skirt were enhanced with Chantilly lace appliques and pearls. The Watteau train was of Chantilly lace. A crown of Alencon lace accented with crystals and pearls was attached to four tiers of elbow length English illusion and she carried a cascade arrangement of white stephanotis and shattered carnations centered with a yellow throat white orchid. Her only jewelry was a cameo necklace, a gift from the groom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Susannah Krieger, sister of the bride. She was attired in a sleeveless maize jakarta A-line gown with white lace bodice sprinkled with yellow centered daisies. A shallow scoop neckline with a low square back accented with a panel of matching lace sprinkled with daisies. Her headdress was of maize pouff illusion on pearl edged comb flowers and she carried a basket of yellow centered daisies.

The junior bridesmaid, Johanna Linn, sister of the bride, was dressed identically to the matron of honor.

Steven Helwagen, brother of the groom, performed the duties of best man. Ushers were Chuck Smith and Dick Patrick, friends of the groom; Jeff Linn and Scott Linn, brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Linn wore for her daughter's wedding a pastel yellow sheath dress with matching lace coat and deep yellow accessories. Mrs. Helwagen selected a mint green coat dress with jeweled buttons and matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of Eucharist lilies.

A reception in the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a four tiered cake topped with yellow roses. Yellow roses and greenery surrounded the base of the cake. The punch tables were covered with yellow net skirts.

Hostesses were Mrs. Kathleen Brown, Miss Elizabeth Campbell, Mrs. Steven Helwagen, Miss Priscilla Mahany, Miss Brenda Brown, Miss Stephanie Brown and Miss Debra Brown.

For a wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains, the bride wore a yellow and white whipped cream dress with long, fan shaped sleeves edged with lace, black patent leather accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

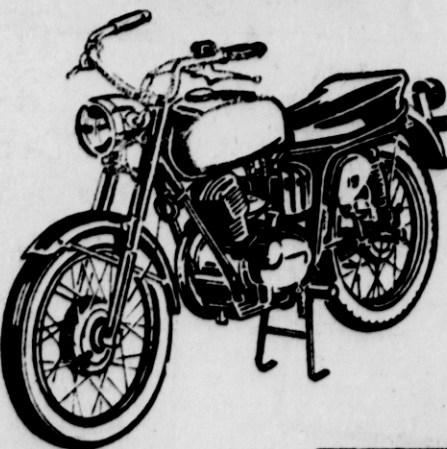

The new Mrs. Helwagen is a graduate of Circleville High School and Ohio University. She taught this past year in the Circleville School system.

Mr. Helwagen, also a graduate of Circleville High School and Ohio University is presently a lieutenant in the U.S. Army, stationed at Fort Knox, Ky.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were from Columbus, California, Indiana, Euclid, Ironton, Ashland, Arkansas, Canton, Ashville, Williamsport and Tarilton.

The couple now resides at Box

FORE FOR FOUR — Nancy Johnson is seen teeing off the first tee at the Pickaway Country Club's Ladies Tournament yesterday. Members of her foursome watch her form. The tourney was a shotgun start event.

Jan McKelvey Fires 92 In Ladies Invitational

Jan McKelvey and Betty Frasier Mauller fired 18-hole rounds of 92 to win low gross honors for the field at the Pickaway Country Club's Ladies Invitational Thursday.

There were 56 golfers competing in the event, 33 from out of the county and 23 from the home course.

Other clubs represented include Valley View, Upper Lansdowne, Lockbourne and Columbus.

Two flights for both members and visitors was set up, with two places for gross and net play.

LOW gross honors in the first flight for members was won by Erma Hedges with 101. Betty Young was second, one stroke back, at 102.

Hester Weldon captured low net honors in the first flight with a 103-75. Louise Story was second with a 107-77.

In the second flight, Arlene Davies won gross honors with 113. Miriam Adkins was second at 114.

Low net was won by Caroline Champion with 114-78, and Helen Kittle captured second with 116-80.

Low puts for the first flight was shared by Mary Carpenter and Aleece Stanton with 29. Low puts for the second flight was won by Helen Jacobs and Dottie Smith at 32.

For the visitors, Sharon Pontius fired a 98 to win low gross in the first flight. Jean Ellis was second with 103.

LOW net in the first flight was captured by Judy Pierce with 108-81, while second place was won by Lucille Rainer with 105-83.

In the second flight for visitors, Norene Meier had 109 to win low gross honors. Pat Stiner captured second with 111.

Low net honors was won by Marge Frazier with a 119-83, while Villier Hildebrandt was second at 115-83.

Low puts for the first flight golfers was won by Barbara Brannon and Liz Mechtly with 31. In the second flight, Hazel

GE Captures First Win

A three-hitter by Rick Blankenship gave GE its first win of the season, an 8-3 victory over winless DuPont, in a Babe Ruth tilt Friday night.

Blankenship fanned 15 batters and walked only one for the win.

He was backed with solid support at the plate by Glen Griebel, who cracked a double, and a single. Blankenship helped his own cause with a triple and Rick Prushing added a double.

Dave Truex was the losing DuPont pitcher, allowing eight hits. He walked nine and fanned 12.

Truex managed the only extra base blow for DuPont, a double.

Sam McDowell Strikes Out 1,500

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Long after the memory of his 5-1, six-hit victory Friday night over the New York Yankees is erased, the Cleveland Indians' Sam McDowell figures to remember his 1,500th career strikeout which came in the game.

"It was a perfect pitch," McDowell said of the fifth-inning, third strike against Ron Woods. "It was a slow curve down and away ... a perfect spot."

McDowell became the 48th player in major league history to record 1,500 strikeouts. He struck out six more batters, including three in the ninth inning, for a game total of 12. His season total of 122 tops the American League.

Paul Warfield of the Cleveland Browns led National Football League pass catchers in touchdowns last season with 12.

Astros Nip Atlanta, 5-4; 10th Straight Win

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Harry Walker won't admit it, but he's trying to hatch a home-made moon-shot in the Houston Astrodome.

Walker's astounding Astros nipped Atlanta 5-4 in the ninth inning Friday night for their 10th consecutive victory and a space walk in fourth place in the National League's tight West Division race.

The Astros' second 10-game orbit of the season shot them within 4½ lengths of pace-setting Los Angeles and brought on the first symptoms of that dizzying high-altitude phenomenon — pennant fever.

"This club is great, isn't it?" Jim Wynn beamed after ex-Brave Marty Martinez poked the game-winning single in the ninth, lifting Houston to its 26th triumph in 31 home games. "Ten in a row and fourth place. Who says we can't win this thing?"

"With the pitching we have, it's always possible," added Joe

Mogan. "Yeah, we can win our division—why not? Look where we're at right now."

"I don't even think about things like that," insisted Manager Walker, proclaiming he still takes his tomorrow one at a time. "But they just keep bouncing back."

While the Astros, mired in the division cellar two months ago after losing 20 of their first 24 starts, vaulted into contention, San Diego ended an 11-game tailspin by blanking Los Angeles 5-0 behind right-hander Joe Niekro.

Despite the loss, the Dodgers remained one-half game in front of the Braves. Third place Cincinnati moved 2½ games off the pace with a 4-3, 9-1 doubleheader sweep over San Francisco that dropped the Giants to fifth—five games out.

Elsewhere, Pittsburgh trimmed the New York Mets 3-1. St. Louis beat the Chicago Cubs 3-1 and Philadelphia shaded Montreal 8-7.

The Astros broke a 4-4 deadlock in the ninth when Curt Blefary singled, took second on a sacrifice, third on an infield out and then scored on Martinez' two-out single off reliever Cecil Upshaw.

Wynn drove in three Houston runs with a double and single. Hank Aaron slammed his 20th homer for the Braves.

Al Ferrara, a former Dodger, launched the Padres toward their skid-breaking victory with a three-run first inning homer off Don Sutton. Niekro scattered six Los Angeles hits for his first victory since May 31 and rookie John Sippin also homered for San Diego.

Jim Merritt hurled a six-hitter and Bob Tolan and Lee May hit homers as the Reds completed their sweep at Cincinnati after beating Giants ace Juan Marichal in the opener on Pete Rose's eighth-inning homer.

Tolan's three-run blast helped Merritt breeze to his eighth victory in 11 decisions. Rose's two-run wallop ended a string of nine straight wins for Marichal, 9-3, at Cincinnati.

Little Fred Patek smacked a decisive fifth-inning homer as the Pirates broke a five-game losing string and extended the Mets' slide to three games. Steve Blass, 8-4, blanked New York on two hits until the ninth, when he got relief help from Joe Gibbon.

The Cardinals ruined Ken Holtzman's perfect game bid and beat the Chicago southpaw ace in the seventh inning on Vada Pinson's single, a wild pitch, a run-scoring single by Joe Torre and a triple by Mike Shannon.

Steve Carlton shut out the Cubs after the third inning and struck out 12 while boosting his record to 8-5.

Larry Hise poled a three-run homer and then sent home the deciding run with a fourth-inning single, leading the Phillies past Montreal for their third straight victory. The Expos wasted a pair of two-run homers by Mack Jones.

Orioles Blast Tigers Hopes, 4-1

By HERSHEL NISSENSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Detroit Tigers may be the first third-place team in baseball history with a magic number.

"I said we had to win six of eight games from Baltimore this weekend and next to gain significant ground," said Mayo Smith, manager of the beleaguered world champions, after the Orioles made off with a 4-1 victory Friday night. "Now it's six out of seven."

Unbeaten Dave McNally and Paul Blair were too much for the Tigers. McNally notched his 11th victory of the season with a five-hitter, setting a club record of 13 consecutive triumphs, counting two at the tag end of last season. And Blair cracked his 17th homer, a two-run shot in the second inning.

The victory gave the Orioles a 53-20 record and left them nine games ahead of Boston in the American League East, while the Tigers dropped 12½ games back.

Elsewhere in the AL, Boston trimmed Washington 4-2, Oakland vaulted back into first place in the West by one-half game by nipping the Chicago White Sox 1-0 while Minnesota was losing to Kansas City 9-8. Cleveland drubbed the New York Yankees 5-1 and California and Seattle split a two-nighter, the Angels winning 5-3, then losing 5-2.

The Orioles unloaded quickly on Detroit starter Earl Wilson. Blair walked in the first inning. Frank Robinson was hit by a pitch. Boog Powell singled in one run and Dave Johnson doubled home another. In the second, Don Buford doubled and Blair homered.

What will the Tigers do if they can't chip away at Baltimore's lead?

"We'll just keep playing," said Smith. "What the hell, strange things happen in this game. If you don't think you can come back, you may as well take off your uniform and never put it on again. But we've got to get good pitching."

Smith said Johnson's run-scoring double should have been fielded by Ike Brown and noted that Willie Horton lost Buford's double in the lights.

"When you're going good, that's how things happen," he said. "That's the way they went for us last season."

Reggie Smith batted in two runs with a single and his 13th home run and Bill Landis and Sparky Lyle combined for a six-hitter as the Red Sox beat Washington, Landis, making his first start in just over one year, hurled six innings and gave up three hits and one run, Brant Alyea's ninth homer.

Oakland, held to one hit for seven innings by Billy Wynne, pushed across an eighth-inning run on an infield hit and a throwing error to edge the White Sox as John "Blue Moon" Odom fired a four-hitter for his 10th victory.

Larry Haney opened the eighth with a single and Odom sacrificed. With two out, third baseman Bill Melton fielded Ted Kubiak's infield hit and threw past first as pinch runner Jim Hunter scored.

Joe Foy singled home the tying run and Hawk Taylor singled in the winner as Kansas City rallied for two in the ninth to overtake Minnesota. The Twins built a 6-1 lead on three-run homers by Tony Oliva and Rich Reese, but the Royals clawed back with two in the fifth and three in the sixth.

Sam McDowell scattered five hits and struck out 12, pushing his career total past the 1,500 mark, in hurling Cleveland past the Yankees. It was the left hander's seventh straight triumph. The Indians broke a 1-1 tie with three runs in the seventh of relievers Lindy McDaniel and Jack Aker on singles by Jose Cardenal, Larry Brown, Duke Sims and Ken Harelsion plus a wild pitch.

Rick Reichardt slammed a 426-foot two-run homer for the Angels in their opener but it took a two-run pinch single by Jay Johnstone to beat the Pilots. Newly acquired Gary Roggenbuck picked up his first major league victory since 1966 in the nightcap, although he needed help from Bob Locker in the sixth.

Cincinnati Reds Win Doubleheader By Brute Force

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati combined solid pitching and power at the plate to take both ends of a doubleheader from San Francisco Friday night, 4-3 and 9-1.

Pete Rose slammed a two-run homer in the opener for the Reds as starting pitcher Gerry Arrigo gave up just two hits in his six innings. Ace reliever Clay Carroll came on for 2-3 innings to notch his 11th victory in 14 decisions.

Wayne Granger came to the mound for the last two outs when Carroll loaded the bases. He cut short a Giant rally that was good for two runs.

Juan Marichal, 9-3, was the loser.

Jim Merritt, backed by 13 hits, hurled a six-hitter in the nightcap to bring his record to 8-3. It was his fourth complete game this season.

"I'm just a little tired," the slender lefthander said as he headed for the showers.

It was the 21st game he had pitched in and was his 16th start. So far this season, he has been on the mound for a total of 112.1 innings and has 72 strikeouts—both top figures on the Reds pitching staff.

Bobby Tolan hit a three-run homer, his 14th, as the Reds scored five times in the second inning of the nightcap and routed rookie Rich Robertson. Lee May hit his 22nd homer in the fourth with one runner on.

The Reds also scored one in the first, two in the fourth and one in the seventh. San Francisco pushed its lone home in the fourth on one of its three hits.

In the opener, Rose's homer in the eighth made a loser of Marichal, who had beaten the Reds nine straight in Cincinnati.

Marichal's fourth-inning single pushed home Hal Lanier, who had doubled, for a 1-0 lead. But Rose singled in a run in the sixth and the Reds went ahead the following inning.

The two teams close out four-game series today.

Francis Hurls, Hits In LE Win

Gary Francis pitched and batted Logan Elm to a 15-0 shutout of Teays Valley Blue in Tri-County Pony League action last night.

Francis first no-hitter of the year brought his record to 2-0 for the season and brought Logan Elm's record to 3-0.

He also went four for four at the plate, smashing a home run, triple and two doubles.

Mark Justus added three hits to LE's 14-hit attack with a triple and two singles. Kenny Kurtz connected for a homerun.

Francis fanned 12 batters and walked two enroute to the win.

FORE FOR FOUR — Nancy Johnson is seen teeing off the first tee at the Pickaway Country Club's Ladies Tournament yesterday. Members of her foursome watch her form. The tourney was a shotgun start event.

Jan McKelvey Fires 92 In Ladies Invitational

Jan McKelvey and Betty Frasier Mauler fired 18-hole rounds of 92 to win low gross honors for the field at the Pickaway Country Club's Ladies Invitational Thursday.

There were 56 golfers competing in the event, 33 from out of the county and 23 from the home course.

Other clubs represented include Valley View, Upper Lansdowne, Lockbourne and Columbus.

Two flights for both members and visitors was set up, with two places for gross and net play.

LOW gross honors in the first flight for members was won by Erma Hedges with 101. Betty Young was second, one stroke back, at 102.

Hester Weldon captured low net honors in the first flight with a 103-75. Louise Story was second with a 107-77.

In the second flight, Arlene Davies won gross honors with 113. Miriam Adkins was second at 114.

Low net was won by Caroline Champion with 114-78, and Helen Kittle captured second with 116-80.

Low putts for the first flight was shared by Mary Carpenter and Alece Stanton with 29. Low putts for the second flight was won by Helen Jacobs and Dottie Smith at 32.

For the visitors, Sharon Pontius fired a 98 to win low gross in the first flight. Jean Ellis was second with 103.

LOW net in the first flight was captured by Judy Pierce with 108-81, while second place was won by Lucille Rainer with 105-83.

In the second flight for visitors, Norene Meier had 109 to win low gross honors. Pat Stiner captured second with 111.

Low net honors was won by Marge Frazier with a 119-83, while Villier Hildebrandt was second at 115-83.

Low putts for the first flight golfers was won by Barbara Brannon and Lis Mechtly with 31. In the second flight, Hazel

GE Captures First Win

A three-hitter by Rick Blankenship gave GE its first win of the season, an 8-3 victory over winless DuPont, in a Babe Ruth tilt Friday night.

Blankenship fanned 15 batters and walked only one for the win.

He was backed with solid support at the plate by Glen Griebel, who cracked a double and a single. Blankenship helped his own cause with a triple and Rick Prushing added a double.

Dave Truex was the losing DuPont pitcher, allowing eight hits. He walked nine and fanned 12.

Truex managed the only extra base blow for DuPont, a double.

Sam McDowell Strikes Out 1,500

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Long after the memory of his 5-1, six-hit victory Friday night over the New York Yankees is erased, the Cleveland Indians' Sam McDowell figures to remember his 1,500th career strikeout which came in the game.

"It was a perfect pitch," McDowell said of the fifth-inning, third strike against Ron Woods. "It was a slow curve down and away... a perfect spot."

McDowell became the 48th player in major league history to record 1,500 strikeouts. He struck out six more batters, including three in the ninth inning, for a game total of 12. His season total of 122 tops the American League.

Paul Warfield of the Cleveland Browns led National Football League pass catchers in touchdowns last season with 12.

Astros Nip Atlanta, 5-4; 10th Straight Win

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Harry Walker won't admit it, but he's trying to hatch a home-made moon-shot in the Houston Astrodome.

Walker's astounding Astros nipped Atlanta 5-4 in the ninth inning Friday night for their 10th consecutive victory and a space walk in fourth place in the National League's tight West Division race.

The Astros' second 10-game orbit of the season shot them within 4½ lengths of pace-setting Los Angeles and brought on the first symptoms of that dizzying high-altitude phenomenon — pennant fever.

"This club is great, isn't it?" Jim Wynn beamed after ex-Brave Marty Martinez poked the game-winning single in the ninth, lifting Houston to its 26th triumph in 31 home games. "Ten in a row and fourth place. Who says we can't win this thing?"

"With the pitching we have, it's always possible," added Joe

Mogan. "Yeah, we can win our division—why not? Look where we're at right now."

"I don't even think about things like that," insisted Manager Walker, proclaiming he still takes his tomorrow's one at a time. "But they just keep bouncing back."

While the Astros, mired in the division cellar two months ago after losing 20 of their first 24 starts, vaulted into contention, San Diego ended an 11-game tailspin by blanking Los Angeles 5-0 behind right-hander Joe Niekro.

Despite the loss, the Dodgers remained one-half game in front of the Braves. Third place Cincinnati moved 2½ games off the pace with a 4-3, 9-1 doubleheader sweep over San Francisco that dropped the Giants to fifth — five games out.

Elsewhere, Pittsburgh trimmed the New York Mets 3-1. St. Louis beat the Chicago Cubs 3-1 and Philadelphia shaded Montreal 8-7.

The Astros broke a 4-4 deadlock in the ninth when Curt Blefary singled, took second on a sacrifice, third on an infield out and then scored on Martinez' two-out single off reliever Cecil Upshaw.

Wynn drove in three Houston runs with a double and single. Hank Aaron slammed his 20th homer for the Braves.

Al Ferrara, a former Dodger, launched the Padres toward their skid-breaking victory with a three-run first-inning homer off Don Sutton. Niekro scattered six Los Angeles hits for his first victory since May 31 and rookie John Sipin also homered for San Diego.

Jim Merritt hurled a six-hitter and Bob Tolan and Lee May hit homers as the Reds completed their sweep at Cincinnati after beating Giants ace Juan Marichal in the opener on Pete Rose's eighth-inning homer.

Tolan's three-run blast helped Merritt breeze to his eighth victory in 11 decisions. Rose's two-run wallop ended a string of nine straight wins for Marichal, 9-3, at Cincinnati.

Little Fred Patek smacked a decisive fifth-inning homer as the Pirates broke a five-game losing string and extended the Mets' slide to three games. Steve Blass, 8-4, blanked New York on two hits until the ninth, when he got relief help from Joe Gibbon.

The Cardinals ruined Ken Holtzman's perfect game bid and beat the Chicago southpaw ace in the seventh inning on Vada Pinson's single, a wild pitch, a run-scoring single by Joe Torre and a triple by Mike Shannon.

Steve Carlton shut out the Cubs after the third inning and struck out 12 while boosting his record to 8-5.

Larry Hise poled a three-run homer and then sent home the deciding run with a fourth-inning single, leading the Phillies past Montreal for their third straight victory. The Expos wasted a pair of two-run homers by Mack Jones.

First Bank, Ward's Market Win Minor League Tilts

First National topped Blue Ribbon Dairy 13-4, and Ward's Market took Circleville Oil 25-2 in Little League Minor action Friday night.

The bankers started the game with a five-run inning following it up with a run in each of the next two innings, two in the fourth stanza, three in the fifth, and one in the last inning. They scored their 13 runs on 15 hits.

Blue Ribbon scored one in the first, tallied one in the third and two in the fifth scoring four on six hits.

Doug McGlone was the winning pitcher whiffing ten, walking five and giving up six hits.

HOWARD Smith started on the mound for the Dairymen and pitched the first inning giving up five hits and two bases on balls while whiffing two. He was relieved in the second inning by Ken Wallace who finished the tilt. Wallace struck out four, walked one and gave up ten hits.

Allen Ranck hit a three-bagger for the winners while Jim Barker and Randy Arledge connected for doubles.

Rick Allen swatted two doubles for the only extra base hits of the night for Blue Ribbon.

Bill Mogan was the big bat for Ward's Market in their 25-2 win over Circleville Oil. His homer started the 13 run third inning.

Mogan started on the mound for the winners allowing three walks, three hits and he fanned seven. Mogan was relieved by Tim Ritchie. Ritchie walked none, allowed no hits and whiffed one while on the mound.

DOLLISON started on the hill for Circleville Oil giving up four hits and four walks. Byron Edgington relieved him and struck out three, walked nine and allowed 22 hits.

Gary Combs, Tim Davis, Randy Speakman, and Tim Ritchie all hit triples for the winners. Davis hit two three baggers. Bob Branick connected for three doubles in the tilt and Randy Dean had two. Combs and Ritchie also hit two basers.

Gilbert Stephens, with a double hit the only extra base of the tilt for Circleville Oil.

Wards scored five in the first inning, six in the second, 13 in the third and one in the fourth, which was the last inning limit. Circleville Oil tallied one in the first and one in the third inning. Ward's 25 runs came on 26 hits and they committed three errors. Circleville Oil had three hits and seven errors.

"I'm just a little tired," the slender lefthander said as he headed for the showers.

It was the 21st game he had pitched in and was his 16th start. So far this season, he has been on the mound for a total of 112½ innings and has 72 strikeouts—both top figures on the Reds pitching staff.

Bobby Tolan hit a three-run homer, his 14th, as the Reds scored five times in the second inning of the nightcap and routed rookie Rich Robertson. Lee May hit his 22nd homer in the fourth with one runner on.

The Reds also scored one in the first, two in the fourth and one in the seventh. San Francisco pushed its lone home in the fourth on one of its three hits.

In the opener, Rose's homer in the eighth made a loser of Marichal, who had beaten the Reds nine straight in Cincinnati.

Marichal's fourth-inning single pushed home Hal Lanier, who had doubled, for a 1-0 lead. But Rose singled in a run in the sixth and the Reds went ahead the following inning.

Good To Fair Ohio Weekend Fishing

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's weekend fishing prospects range from good to fair in most areas of the state, the Ohio Division of Wildlife reported Thursday.

On Lake Erie, fair catches of white bass are being made around the reef areas and Bass Island. Anglers say spinners or white doll flies are ideal lures for the white bass. At Johnson's Island and the Sandusky Bay Bridge, channel catfish are being taken in moderate numbers with nightcrawlers fished near the bottom most effective. Fair catches of perch also are being made at the Sandusky Bay Bridge, Kelley's Island, Catawba State Park and other areas where the water is 15 - 20 feet deep.

CENTRAL OHIO — Waters are slightly muddy and roily in most fishing spots because of rains but may clear by the weekend. Large walleye are being taken at Hoover Reservoir, some perch and bass at Knox

Lake and crappies, channel catfish and bluegills and bass at Indian Lake. At Deer Creek Reservoir good walleye fishing is reported in the tail water.

NORTHEASTERN OHIO — Streams are generally roily and above normal, but most fishing spots are expected to improve by the weekend if there are no further heavy rains. Huron River is producing smallmouth bass near Milan, and Clear Fork Reservoir fishermen continue to catch largemouth bass, crappies and a few muskie and white bass. Largemouth bass have been hitting at Clear Fork on surface lures.

NORTHEASTERN OHIO — Leesville, Deer Creek and North Reservoirs report nice catches of muskie trolling with deep running artificial lures, and small-mouth bass are hitting very good on spinners and jigs at Rocky River and Vermilion River; Pymatuning Reservoir reports good catches of walleye trolling with deep running spinners tipped with worms and at Findlay Lake some northern pike being taken.

Coody Holds 4-Stroke Lead In Cleveland Open

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Charles Coody, the hottest item on the pro golf tour, held a whopping, four-stroke lead going into today's third round of the Cleveland Open, but he's not about to spend the $22,000 first place prize yet.

"There's 36 holes to go," he said Friday after matching the Aurora Country Club course record with a six-under-par 64 that gave him a four-stroke lead at 131.

"There's a lot of players who still have a good shot at it."

"I learned about nine weeks ago that a tournament isn't over until the last putt drops."

"That was at Augusta, Ga., in the Masters. I had the lead in the final round standing on the 16th tee. And I finished with three straight bogeys."

Coody, a 6-foot-2 Texan whose only tour victory was the 1964 Dallas Open, tied the low 36 holes on the tour this year and now is a fantastic 17 under par for his last three rounds. He had a final round 65, seven-under-par in the Kemper Open last week, finishing second to Dale Douglass.

John Schlee and Bruce Crampton shared second place at 135, each with a second round 66. Jim Colbert, who played with Crampton and traded some words with the transplanted Australian over slow play, was alone in fourth place at 138. He had a second round 67.

Tommy Aaron, 67, and George Hixon, 70, followed at 138. Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer, the games two greatest names, made minor rallies and each vowed they would once again get their games in shape.

Palmer birdied his last three holes, on putts of 15, 25 and 20

Soccer War Brings Break In Relations

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP) — Honduras and its tiny neighbor El Salvador maintained an icy silence today after a dispute over soccer matches led them to sever diplomatic relations.

The deciding game was played Friday night on neutral territory, in Mexico City, and El Salvador won 3-2 in overtime. There were no incidents reported.

The dispute began earlier this month when the two teams met in a best-of-three playoff series for a berth in the 1970 World Cup tournament.

Honduras won the first game in its capital. El Salvador won the second game in its capital last week. Rioting followed both matches.

After the second game, Honduras complained that its team had been insulted and attacked by Salvadorean fans. Honduras also said fans were disrespectful during the playing of its national anthem.

El Salvador then claimed Hondurans were attacking Salvadoreans living in Honduras. It said Hondurans were expropriating Salvadoreans' property and expelling them from the country. The Salvadorean Red Cross said thousands of Salvadoreans returned from Honduras complaining of atrocities.

The two countries agreed to hold the final round of the soccer playoff in Mexico, but the dispute continued.

On Thursday night, El Salvador announced it intended to sever diplomatic relations. Honduras replied Friday night it not only intended to break off ties but had done so.

El Salvador's soccer team won the right Friday to meet Haiti to determine which team will represent the North American and North Caribbean zone in the world championship in Mexico next summer.

NORTHEASTERN OHIO — Leesville, Deer Creek and North Reservoirs report nice catches of muskie trolling with deep running artificial lures, and small-mouth bass are hitting very good on spinners and jigs at Rocky River and Vermilion River; Pymatuning Reservoir reports good catches of wall-eye trolling with deep running spinners tipped with worms and at Findlay Lake some northern pike being taken.

SOUTHEASTERN OHIO — Piedmont Reservoir is clear and normal with some muskies being taken; Dillon Reservoir is high and roily but a good variety of fish is being taken. Other streams and lakes in the area report fair success with the out-look good.

SOUTHWESTERN OHIO — Lake St. Marys is high and roily with outlook for weekend fair to good. Lake Lorain is in the same condition and muddy, with outlook only fair. Stonelick and Acton Lakes are high and roily but outlook is good with some good catches being reported. At Rocky Fork, water is normal and roily with channel catfish biting on nightcrawlers.

Coody Holds 4-Stroke Lead In Cleveland Open

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Charles Coody, the hottest item on the pro golf tour, held a whopping, four-stroke lead going into today's third round of the Cleveland Open, but he's not about to spend the $22,000 first prize yet.

"There's 36 holes to go," he said Friday after matching the Aurora Country Club course record with a six-under-par 64 that gave him a four-stroke lead at 131.

"There's a lot of players who still have a good shot at it. I learned about nine weeks ago that a tournament isn't over until the last putt drops."

"That was at Augusta, Ga., in the Masters. I had the lead in the final round standing on the 16th tee. And I finished with three straight bogeys."

Tommy Aaron, 67, and George Hixon, 70, followed at 138. Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer, the games two greatest names, made minor rallies and each vowed they would once again get their games in shape.

Palmer birdied his last three holes, on putts of 15, 25 and 20 feet, for a 69 and 143.

"I haven't made three putts in a row like that in two years," he said, then reconsidered. "Three years, four years. Make it five years."

"I'll get it back. I thought I had it back early this week. I don't know where or when it will be, but I'll get it back."

Nicklaus had a 68 for 141, despite bogeys on his last two holes.

"I played the last two like an idiot," the Golden Bear said. "It was ridiculous. I was going along fine, could have been shooting a 68, then I lost my concentration. But things are improving. It may be a week, it may be a month, it may be two months, but it'll come around."

Coody had no such problems. "These last three rounds I've had a real good feeling with the putter. I feel like I can make every putt," he said.

Lida Lee Matthews Wins Golf Crown

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Experience won out Friday as Lida Lee Matthews won her second Ohio Women's Amateur Golf Tournament title.

She defeated 18-year-old Helen Kirtland of Cadiz 3 and 2 in the championship flight.

Miss Kirtland was the youngest woman ever to compete in the championship flight of the OWAG. Miss Matthews was competing in her 11th straight tournament final. She won the crown in 1967 and placed second last year.

Miss Kirtland led by a stroke on the fifth, 10th and 12th holes, but Miss Matthews, of Portsmouth, took the lead to stay at the 15th hole.

FISH n TIPS

By BILL TRUE, World's Professional Casting Champ

Champ

The spin-casting or closed spinning reel is mounted on top of the rod and features a button or mechanical thumb. It should be mounted on a bait-casting rod and hand manipulation is similar to that used with a bait-casting reel.

Using a stationary spool technique this method is the easiest to master and offers no backlashes to untangle.

Hold the rod and reel as you would a bait-casting reel, in a side position, with the handle up. Depress the push button and bring the rod back, then forward in a smooth action.

At the end of the forward thrust release the push button allowing the line to be released.

To retrieve, place the reel in the palm of the left hand; if you're right handed, turn the handle.

Although many anglers use a 15-pound test line with their closed-spinning outfits, 8 or 10 pound-line is recommended. Offering less resistance to the spool the lighter line will offer better casting.

Again, I must emphasize wrist action for accurate, easy casting. A good way to master this important technique to good fishing is to sit on some steps and place your elbow, holding the rod and reel, on your knee. Cast by using wrist action exclusively. Let the wrist control the rod.

3 Burglaries Investigated By Police

Circleville Police were investigating three burglaries Saturday morning that occurred during the night.
The first was reported by William Giffin at 12:35 a.m. Giffin said a vending machine had been broken into at the automatic car wash on Lancaster Pike. An undetermined amount of cash was missing.
At 6:44 a.m. Cecil Hatfield reported an entry at the Lyons Equipment Co. on W. High St. Intruders broke a window on the west side of the building. An undetermined amount of money was taken in addition to a transistor radio, several tools including a set of acetylene torches.
Otto Guenther (Bus Palm) reported at 8:28 a.m. that Gourmet Corners on N. Court St. had been burglarized. A panel on a rear door was forced. The entry is still under investigation and an inventory is being done to determine the loss.
Prior to the series of entries, police were called to the corner of S. Court and Ohio Sts., where an explosive had been placed in the telephone booth there. The top of the booth was blown off.
Yesterday afternoon, Bernard Kathe reported that a 23-foot extension ladder was taken from a garage at 213 Walnut St.

'Astromonk' Set To Blast Off On 30 Day Orbital Mission

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A 16-pound pigtail monkey named Bonny is to rocket into orbit tonight to start the longest space flight ever taken by a living creature.

Scientists hope the "astromonk" will help set guidelines for future manned missions in space stations and planetary voyages that could last months or years.

Bonny, a 3-year-old male from the jungles of Thailand, is to ride into space atop a Delta rocket at 11:10 p.m. EDT. He is to orbit for 30 days, strapped in a couch in his flying biological laboratory.

His arms will be free to push buttons in two behavioral tests designed to determine if his memory capacity deteriorates after long exposure to the space environment, primarily in weightlessness. He will receive food pellets as a reward for good performance.

Delicate instruments implanted in the brain, heart and other vital body areas will radio data continuously to earth. Extensive post-flight study will be made after the primate capsule parachutes back to earth at completion of the mission.

In another Cape Kennedy area, the countdown rehearsal continued for the Apollo 11 moon landing flight. The seven-day test is to end next Thursday with astronauts Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Michael Collins climbing into their spaceship atop the Saturn 5 rocket for a mock blastoff.

A successful test would clear the way for the planned July 16 lift-off.

The three astronauts worked in spaceship trainers here Friday and then flew elsewhere for specialized training today.

Armstrong and Collins are at the Manned Spacecraft Center, Houston, Tex., Aldrin is at Langley Air Force Base, Va., practicing on a device which simulates the moon's one-sixth gravity field.

In another development Friday, astronaut Donald K. Slayton, director of flight crew operations, denied a report from a former space agency official that Armstrong had pulled rank to have a chance at being the first man to step on the moon.

Most In Welsh Town Glad Prince Charles Is Coming

By RONALD THOMSON
Associated Press Writer
CAERNARVON, Wales (AP) — Welsh nationalists seem to be in retreat as the hour draws near for Britain's future king to pledge himself to the service of Wales.

That's the impression a visitor gets in this town dominated by one of the most majestic castles in the world. It's hard to find a man or woman outspokenly hostile to Prince Charles.

In fact, Caernarvon, founded 2,000 years ago as a fortified outpost of the Roman Empire is behaving today like a blushing bride. It's in love with Bonnie Prince Charles, the 20-year-old Englishman who will be invested as Prince of Wales in a great royal ceremony Tuesday.

Most of Caernarvon's 9,000 citizens, speak Welsh, think

were color picture tubes.

"One of the key factors in selecting Circleville," Brewster said, "was its central location in respect to the company's three tube manufacturing plants. RCA also took into consideration Circleville's adequate labor supply and excellent transportation facilities. The greater Columbus area also has many fine residential areas, recreational areas, excellent schools and colleges, civic and cultural organizations. All of these features make this area an ideal community for RCA employees to live and work."

Brewster reported that the company decided to manufacture glass for its color picture tube facilities on the basis of recent market research surveys. These surveys have indicated a steady year-to-year growth of color TV set sales and color picture tube requirements.

Architect for RCA's Circleville plant is Haines, Lundberg and Waehler of New York, N.Y.
H. F. Teichmann and Company of Pittsburgh, Pa. will be consulting engineers on the plant. The building contractor for the new plant has not been selected at this time.

The new Circleville color TV picture tube glass plant further strengthens RCA's position in Ohio's industrial society.

Brewster said RCA now has 20 separate installations in the state, employing a total of 3,800 persons.

RCA's annual payroll in Ohio is more than $20 million. State and local taxes paid by RCA are in excess of $1,265,000 annually. Upon completion of the Circleville plant, RCA's facilities in the State will occupy nearly 690,000 square feet, Brewster added.

Claim Big 4 No Nearer Peace Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Diplomatic sources said Friday night they expect the Big Four U.N. ambassadors to recess their weekly talks about a Middle East peace settlement after Tuesday's meeting.

These informants said the big powers had been unable to agree on a progress report they hoped to issue. They said deputies from the United States, the Soviet Union, France and Britain would continue discussions. The ambassadors have held 14 weekly sessions since April 3 trying to agree on how Israel and her Arab neighbors should settle their June 1967 war.

Soviet Ambassador Jacob A. Malik already has left New York. He sailed Thursday on the liner United States for two months' home leave.

Lord Caddon of Britain and Ambassador Charles W. Yost of the United States plan to attend a U.N. meeting in Geneva next month and the French Ambassador Armand Berard is taking a month-long vacation trip in the United States beginning July 10.

Meanwhile, a Security Council meeting was set for Monday at which Jordan will protest Israel's treatment of Arabs in the occupied old city of Jerusalem.

Citing a council resolution that called on Israel not to change the status of the Jerusalem, the Jordanian ambassador Muhammad H. El-Farra said Israel had disregarded it by deporting four Jordanians from Jerusalem and moving 88 persons from their homes in the old city Wednesday.

The discovery that Mercury rotates independently of the sun makes astronomers wonder if Mercury is not a true planet at all but a moon of Venus that drifted away from its parent and was captured by the sun.

Kentucky Town Loses 4 Guardsmen In Viet Battle

BARDSTOWN, Ky. (AP) — Bardstown is in mourning. Four members of its National Guard unit were killed in an attack on their base in Vietnam.

On their way home are the bodies of Spec. 4 David B. Collins, 24, Spec. 4 Ronald E. Simpson, 22, and S. Sgt. James T. Moore, 25, all of Bardstown, and Spec. 4 Joseph R. McIlvoy, 23, of Willisburg in nearby Washington County.

County Judge James A. Sutherland and Mayor Gus Wilson have proclaimed a mourning period throughout Nelson County from Friday through July 4 when a memorial service will be held in a high school auditorium.

This central Kentucky community has a population of about 6,000.

"We feel a little bit of tragedy has touched all of us," said Patrolman Miles Durbin, cousin of one of the four widows. "The boys are all gone."

Sutherland said, "People seem to feel some resentment since they don't feel that the guard should have been called up in the first place."

The guard unit, Battery C, 138th Artillery, was ordered to active duty May 16, 1968.

Moore was one of 105 members of the 138th, made up of guardsmen from Bardstown, Louisville, Elizabethtown and Carrollton, had filed suit in U.S. District Court in Austin, Tex.,

Oct. 3, 1968 in an attempt to halt their shipment to Vietnam.

The district court declined to countermand the orders and the guardsmen appealed that decision to the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans, where the case is now under advisement.

The Army gave no description of the attack June 19 that killed the soldiers, the families said.

"It's just God's will and we'll have to accept it," said Mrs. Robert Simpson, sister-in-law of Ronald Simpson. "He will have a military funeral with Masonic rights."

"She's holding up pretty good," Mrs. Simpson said of the dead soldier's wife, Deanna, who just returned home from the doctor. "She was due to have their first baby at the beginning of the week," Mrs. Simpson said.

Moore is survived by a 2-year-old daughter. Collins never saw his 2-month-old son.

Two Accidents Occur On Route 23 Friday

Four persons were injured in two separate accidents on Route 23 Friday evening.

The Ohio State Highway Patrol investigated a two-car collision north of South Bloomfield at 10:55 p.m.

Injured were Otis V. McCormick, 45, Ashville, who was admitted to Berger Hospital for treatment, and Cecil Dotson, 46, Kentucky, who was treated for a laceration of the lip and released.

The accident is still under investigation by the patrol. McCormick, the driver of one of the cars, was hit in the rear by Dotson's vehicle. Both cars were demolished.

At 11:35 p.m., a tractor-trailer truck collided with a pickup truck it was passing near the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad.

Two persons who were passengers in the pickup truck were injured.

James Carpenter, 21, Vanceburg, Ky., refused treatment for minor injuries.

Bertha Carpenter, 54, Vanceburg, Ky., sustained a skull fracture and possible other injuries. She was taken to Berger Hospital and transferred to University Hospital, Columbus.

George Pollack, the driver of the tractor-trailer of Union City, Pa., was cited for not maintaining an assured clear distance by Pickaway County Deputy Sheriff Don Thompson.

Mrs. Carpenter was thrown from the rear of the pickup truck at the time of the collision. There were six other passengers in the vehicle who were not injured.

Mainly About People

F. Morten Tootle, New Holland, has been dismissed from Fayette Memorial Hospital, Washington C.H.

Tink's Tavern will be closed June 30 thru July 6 for employee's vacation. Reopen July 7.

Kingston Fair In Final Day

A full day of activities are planned at the Kingston Festival, now in its final day. Antique autos are on display today and will be judged in competition beginning at noon. Two demonstrations are scheduled. Cake decorating will be explained at 2:30 p.m. and flower arranging at 4 p.m.

A magician performs at 5:15 p.m. and a square dance, beginning at 9 p.m. will conclude the annual affair.

Kiddie Day will be featured on the midway from 1-4 p.m. All rides will be available to youngsters at reduced prices during these hours.

The festival is held in the village community park which benefits from proceeds of the annual fete.

'Astromonk' Set To Blast Off On 30 Day Orbital Mission

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A 14-pound pigtail monkey named Bonny is to rocket into orbit tonight to start the longest space flight ever taken by a living creature.

Scientists hope the "astromonk" will help set guidelines for future manned missions in space stations and planetary voyages that could last months or years.

Bonny, a 3-year-old male from the jungles of Thailand, is to ride into space atop a Delta rocket at 11:10 p.m. EDT. He is to orbit for 30 days, strapped in a couch in his flying biological laboratory.

His arms will be free to push buttons in two behavioral tests designed to determine if his memory capacity deteriorates after long exposure to the space environment, primarily in weightlessness. He will receive food pellets as a reward for good performance.

Delicate instruments implanted in the brain, heart and other vital body areas will radio data continuously to earth. Extensive post-flight study will be made after the primate capsule parachutes back to earth at completion of the mission.

In another Cape Kennedy area, the countdown rehearsal continued for the Apollo 11 moon landing flight. The seven-day test is to end next Thursday with astronauts Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Michael Collins climbing into their spaceship atop the Saturn 5 rocket for a mock blastoff.

A successful test would clear the way for the planned July 16 liftoff.

The three astronauts worked in spaceship trainers here Friday and then flew elsewhere for specialized training today.

Armstrong and Collins are at the Manned Spacecraft Center, Houston, Tex., Aldrin is at Langley Air Force Base, Va., practicing on a device which simulates the moon's one-sixth gravity field.

In another development Friday, astronaut Donald K. Slayton, director of flight crew operations, denied a report from a former space agency official that Armstrong had pulled rank to have a chance at being the first man to step on the moon.

Most In Welsh Town Glad Prince Charles Is Coming

By RONALD THOMSON
Associated Press Writer
CAERNARVON, Wales (AP) — Welsh nationalists seem to be in retreat as the hour draws near for Britain's future king to pledge himself to the service of Wales.

That's the impression a visitor gets in this town dominated by one of the most majestic castles in the world. It's hard to find a man or woman outspokenly hostile to Prince Charles.

In fact, Caernarvon, founded 2,000 years ago as a fortified outpost of the Roman Empire is behaving today like a blushing bride. It's in love with Bonnie Prince Charles, the 20-year-old Englishman who will be invested as Prince of Wales in a great royal ceremony Tuesday.

Most of Caernarvon's 9,000 citizens, speak Welsh, think

were color picture tubes.

"One of the key factors in selecting Circleville," Brewster said, "was its central location in respect to the company's three tube manufacturing plants. RCA also took into consideration Circleville's adequate labor supply and excellent transportation facilities. The greater Columbus area also has many fine residential areas, recreational areas, excellent schools and colleges, civic and cultural organizations. All of these features make this area an ideal community for RCA employees to live and work."

Brewster reported that the company decided to manufacture glass for its color picture tube facilities on the basis of recent market research surveys. These surveys have indicated a steady year-to-year growth of color TV set sales and color picture tube requirements.

Architect for RCA's Circleville plant is Haines, Lundberg and Waeber of New York, N.Y.

H. F. Teichmann and Company of Pittsburgh, Pa. will be consulting engineers on the plant. The building contractor for the new plant has not been selected at this time.

The new Circleville color TV picture tube glass plant further strengthens RCA's position in Ohio's industrial society. Brewster said RCA now has 20 separate installations in the state, employing a total of 3,800 persons.

RCA's annual payroll in Ohio is more than $20 million. State and local taxes paid by RCA are in excess of $1,265,000 annually. Upon completion of the Circleville plant, RCA's facilities in the State will occupy nearly 690,000 square feet, Brewster added.

Claim Big 4 No Nearer Peace Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Diplomatic sources said Friday night they expect the Big Four U.N. ambassadors to recess their weekly talks about a Middle East peace settlement after Tuesday's meeting.

These informants said the big powers had been unable to agree on a progress report they hoped to issue. They said deputies from the United States, the Soviet Union, France and Britain would continue discussions. The ambassadors have held 14 weekly sessions since April 3 trying to agree on how Israel and her Arab neighbors should settle their June 1967 war.

Soviet Ambassador Jacob A. Malik already has left New York. He sailed Thursday on the liner United States for two months' home leave.

Lord Caddon of Britain and Ambassador Charles W. Yost of the United States plan to attend a U.N. meeting in Geneva next month and the French Ambassador Armand Berard is taking a month-long vacation trip in the United States beginning July 10.

Meanwhile, a Security Council meeting was set for Monday at which Jordan will protest Israel's treatment of Arabs in the occupied old city of Jerusalem.

Citing a council resolution that called on Israel not to change the status of the Jerusalem, the Jordanian ambassador Muhammad H. El-Farra said Israel had disregarded it by deporting four Jordanians from Jerusalem and moving 88 persons from their homes in the old city Wednesday.

Kentucky Town Loses 4 Guardsmen In Viet Battle

BARDSTOWN, Ky. (AP) — Bardstown is in mourning. Four members of its National Guard unit were killed in an attack on their base in Vietnam.

On their way home are the bodies of Spec. 4 David B. Collins, 24, Spec. 4 Ronald E. Simpson, 22, and S. Sgt. James T. Moore, 23, all of Bardstown, and Spec. 4 Joseph R. McIlvoy, 23, of Williamsburg in nearby Washington County.

County Judge James A. Sutherland and Mayor Gus Wilson have proclaimed a mourning period throughout Nelson County from Friday through July 4 when a memorial service will be held in a high school auditorium.

This central Kentucky community has a population of about 6,000.

"We feel a little bit of tragedy has touched all of us," said Patrolman Miles Durbin, cousin of one of the four widows. "The boys are all gone."

Two Accidents Occur On Route 23 Friday

Four persons were injured in two separate accidents on Route 23 Friday evening.

The Ohio State Highway Patrol investigated a two-car collision north of South Bloomfield at 10:55 p.m.

Injured were Otis V. McCormick, 45, Ashville, who was admitted to Berger Hospital for treatment, and Cecil Dotson, 46, Kentucky, who was treated for a laceration of the lip and released.

The accident is still under investigation by the patrol. McCormick, the driver of one of the cars, was hit in the rear by Dotson's vehicle. Both cars were demolished.

At 11:35 p.m., a tractor-trailer truck collided with a pickup truck it was passing near the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad.

Two persons who were passengers in the pickup truck were injured.

James Carpenter, 21, Vanceburg, Ky., refused treatment for minor injuries.

Bertha Carpenter, 54, Vanceburg, Ky., sustained a skull fracture and possible other injuries. She was taken to Berger Hospital and transferred to University Hospital, Columbus.

George Pollack, the driver of the tractor-trailer of Union City, Pa., was cited for not maintaining an assured clear distance by Pickaway County Deputy Sheriff Don Thompson.

Mrs. Carpenter was thrown from the rear of the pickup truck at the time of the collision. There were six other passengers in the vehicle who were not injured.
